(12)

I do hereby acknowledge myself to be a prisoner of War upon parole to the United States (being made so by Captain James Buchanan in the Brigantine Fox of Baltimore) and that I am thereby engaged until I shall be exchanged or otherwise released therefrom, to remain in Baltimore; and that I shall not in the mean time do or cause any thing to be done prejudicial to the United States, or hold any correspondence with the enemys thereof: And that upon a Summons from the said Captain James Buchanan or other person having authority thereto I will surrender myself to him or them at such time and place as shall hereafter be required.

Witness my hand this tenth day of September 1780
