"BE sure you are right and then go ahead," is an old and sensible saying, but our friend of the Free Press seems to have gone ahead opposing the building of a new high school building at Denton, before he knew that he was right, as he asks the UNION and Examiner Stephens for facts. We have looked into the facts in the case some time ago and gave them to the public as we saw them. The importance of an education can no longer be opposed in consideration of a few dollars and cents, and no one can do their children a greater injustice than to turn them into the world with little or no education. If you want to keep your children down intellectually, morally and financially, deprive them of an education and and in nearly every case you will succeed. But, says the Free Press, "we have consideration for our farmers, who are now bearing the burden of our county and State taxes, and yet have very meagre opportunities for educating their sons and daughters." No one has more consideration for the farmer along financial lines than we have, but we don't consider it wise to block the wheels of education in this county in consideration of a few hundred dollars, which to the largest taxpayer would be nominal. Or, if the taxpayers wish to evade the payment for this property, then let low-rate bonds be issued, payable after the present generation shall have been educated, which we imagine they will consider no hardship when compared to the benefits derived therefrom. Again, our Greensboro friend wants to know "what the building will cost, how much it will take annually to support the school, and how the children remote from Denton are to be benefitted, and what effect it will have upon country school facilities." We thought the public understood the above. The building is supposed to cost $6,000 to $7,000, and as to the expense of supporting the school, that will be the same as heretofore, adding teachers as the growth of schools demand. A few years ago two teachers constituted the list, while now we have six teachers and one school house of rather small dimensions in Denton. This school is not intended for children. The county has provided for them. After the boy and girl has attained the highest grade in those schools, then the Denton High School opens its doors to any in the county and asks them to come and get a good business education free of charge. Can she do more? If parents of more means than the average farmer want to send their children away and pay for an education that they could have had at home free, that is their business, but don't rob those less fortunate than yourself of an aducation. Those who attended the commencement exercises here two weeks ago must admit that their training compared favorably with ceminaries and boarding schools. Let this opposition under the guise "of burdening the farmer" cease, as he is the one directly benefitted, instead of being robbed. By giving them a high-grade education you prepare them for better farmers and farmers' wives than they could be without it.

WHISPERINGS have been heard as to why such lethargy should exists in the Democratic party in the county at this time. A few years ago the political bosses would be out long before this trying to make peace with the long string of applicants for the same office. The change is very perceptible and "the faithful" are beginning to mutter on account of it. Up to the present time only one candidate has come out boldly and announced himself a candidate, that being some time since, and as we have heard but little of him of late, don't know that he is now in the race. To be sure there is talk of a ticket, but not like it once was when men not only came forward themselves and announced that they were candidates, but offered as high as $3,000 for a nomination. Now their friends get behind them and push them into the field. Put more fuel under the pot, my Democratic friends, and give your political organ something else to do besides speculate on a Republican ticket. It must be embarrassing to that faithful organ to be showing its tail feathers so early in the campaign, as heretofore it has been noted for its bold front.

THE public well remember that a man by the name of Grover Cleveland was once president of the United States in name, and that said Grover posed as a Civil Service Reformer, and were we asked to say which of the two he made the greatest failure of, it would be impossible we believe to say as he was so great a failure in everything, save filling his own coffers. Experience has taught Mr. Cleveland many things now it is too late to profit by them. A while ago he told ex-Gov. Foster, of Columbus, O., that he was sorry he had issued his famous civil service order and said: "Why Mr. Cleveland told me recently he had gone too far in his famous order. He said he had issued the sweeping order, knowing that experience would show where it was illy drawn. Now President McKinley has merely corrected the mistake in President Cleveland's order. He has not abandoned the principle." Mr. Cleveland evidently wanted to let himself down as easily as possible and took this way of doing so. It was a sort of death-bed order of Mr. Cleveland, who was just going out of office and wanted to take care of as many of his political friends as possible. The only surprising thing about this order since McKinley became president, is that it has stood as long as it has. As an exchange puts it, "the silly, boyish methods of Grover Cleveland have come to an end."

AMONG the few Democrats of the State to announce themselves candidates for comptroller, Mr. Thos. A. Smith, of Ridgely, is the latest. It will be remembered that Mr. Smith ran against Comptroller P. L. Goldsborough and was defeated by a handsome majority two years ago. Mr. Smith is a good business man and has been one of the several to help develop Ridgely, and if a Democrat was to be chosen this fall we should like to see Mr. Smith honored, but as present indications point to a larger Republican landslide than two years ago, we hope Mr. Smith will not caught this time. Present indications point to a stronger Republican ticket this year than heretofore, as the party has been weighed in the scales of public opinion and is not found wanting. The voters have been deceived so often by political bosses, that by a change nothing would be gained, but all might be lost. The thing to do is to let well-enough alone and let the Republican party continue to work out the great reforms already begun, but as yet in their infancy.

NO, Mr. Snow Hill Messenger we didn't know the New York Sun was a Republican paper. You should not conclude that because leading Democratic journals can't swallow all the wrong doings of the Democratic party that they are any the less Democratic, but to the contrary, they are more so. The papers which have the courage to stand by their convictions are the genuine article and will do their party more good than party papers of the Messenger class. Editor Dana put the Sun on its present independent footing, and while it then displeased some of the party leaders, he stood by his convictions and denounced the treachery then existing in his party and the management has pursued that course up to the present time and the better element of that party approved of the course it took.

"OUR charter mill is turning out charters in rapid order. A $12,000-000 concern among the companies incorporated and other big concerns furnish revenue for the State. In one day last week Secretary of State Hughes issued several charters." This information comes from the Dover Index, a Democratic paper and says the Sec'y of State of the same party is forming trusts to beat the band during Republican prosperity. The Democratic editors of this vicinity must have been reading the UNION of late on Delaware trusts as they have gone into their shell and shut up as close as a clam.

THE Republicans in Maryland seem now to be a "happy family," all united in favor of Gov. Lowndes' renomination. Truly, adversity is a great leveler.—Kent News.

Yes, to the discomfort of the democracy throughout the State, we are a "happy family," and present indications point to victory. We suppose the adversity the News points to with such satisfaction, is the late municipal election in Baltimore, which the Democratic press before election pointed to as being non-partisan.

IS'NT it about time the Democratic press was telling the farmer and fruit grower that the Republican party is responsible for the glut in the strawberry market? or, that a trust had been formed to rob the grower, or something along this line. It may think this is not the opportune time.

SINCE the Bryanites of the State are claiming the credit of Baltimore's municipal election, it is pretty good evidence that he will control the State next year, and is endeavoring to get Mayor-elect Thos. G. Hayes to take charge of the reorganization.

THE city election in Wilmington, Saturday, resulted as expected, in the defeat of both factions of the Republican party. The only Republican elected was H. C. Conrad, for city solicitor, who was on both Republican tickets. The vote here shows by comparison of the two full party votes that the city is Republican by 428 majority, the two solicitors receiving 5114 and 4,686 respectively. So long as the Addicks and Regular factions fight each other, so long will the state be Democratic.

WHAT about wool and the Dingley tariff Mr. Democrat this year? They are silent. By contrasting the present price of wool under the present law with the Gorman-Wilson bill, it is 50 per cent. higher than under the Cleveland administration, while wool clothing is as cheap now as then. The cause of this is the Dingley bill does'nt discriminate in favor of the foreign wool grower. And so it runs all through the Dingley schedule.

THE Smyrna Times came out last week in enlarged form and change of makeup, now being a 6-col. quarto. It looks well in its new form, and as usual, full of up-to-date news. It is the oldest country weekly in the State of Delaware, having just celebrated its 45th birth day. Mr. R. D. Hoffecker, the present editor, founded the paper.

THE Chestertown Transcript is showing some nervousness about her sister county, Queen Anne's, being able to hold her usual majority this fall. The politicians expect that county to roll up their majority for them on the Eastern Shore, while the plums go in other directions. The old Egyptian political slavery will not always work in that county.

PRESIDENT McKinley's order to take about 4,000 positions out of the civil service list, will give Collector Parlett about 60 appointments to fill and there will be 20 or 30 in the Custom House to be refilled, giving the Republicans their rightful possessions.

WHISKEY and money have played a prominent part in the Democratic primary campaign in Kent county, which closes this week, and will be the most potent factors in determining the result at the polls next Saturday.—Chestertown Enterprise of June 1.

Platt Satisfied.

United States Senator T. C. Platt, of New York, expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied with the National Administration, and said:

"I never knew the Republican party to be in better shape than it is now. The party throughout the nation is satisfied with the administration. There is not a dissenting note. President McKinley's conduct of the Cuban and Philippine questions has received not only the indorsement of his party, but of the whole country as well. It is approved by the world. With much to contend with, he has given the country an eminently successful and satisfactory administration, and it has met with favor the world over. The general satisfaction has been demonstrated by the President's reception wherever he has gone. Without a shadow of doubt he will be renominated and re-elected. Vice-President Hobart will be re-elected with President McKinley. The Democrats have only one issue—silver—and that has been repudiated by the entire country."

On the subject of expansion Senator Platt said: "No land ever held by the United States must be relinquished."

Speaking of the peace conference at The Hague, he said:

"Universal peace is visionary and beautiful, but impracticable in this age. I believe in an Anglo-Saxon unity of interests, but there is no necessity for any formal alliance between this country and Great Britain, especially when we remember how largely Great Britain is dependent upon us and our friendship for her food supply."

A Valuable Publication.

On June 1 the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will publish the 1899 edition of its Summer Excursion Route Book. This work is designed to provide the public with short descriptive notes of the principal Summer resorts of Eastern America, with the routes for reaching them, and the rates of fare. It contains all the principal seashore and mountain resorts of the east, and over fifteen hundred different routes or combinations of routes for reaching them. The book has been compiled with the utmost care, and altogether is the most complete and comprehensive handibook of Summer travel ever offered to the public.

It is bound in a handsome and striking cover, in color, and contains several maps, presenting the exact routes over which tickets are sold. It is also profusely illustrated with fine half-tone cuts of scenery at the various resorts and along the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On and after June 1 it may be procured at any Pennsylvania Railroad ticket office at the nominal price of ten cents, or; upon application to the general office, Broad Street Station, for twenty cents.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AND CANNERY.

Under and by virtue of a writ of fieri facias, issued out of the Circuit Court for Caroline County on the 29th day of April, 1899, and to me directed, at the suit of Julius C. Goodwin, use of W. M. Wright, against the goods and chattels lands and tenements of Jesse A. Wright and James N. Craft, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title and interest at law and in equity, of the said Jesse A. Wright, in and to the following real estate, viz:

No 1—All that Canning House and Wharf Property situated in the town of Choptank, Caroline county, Maryland, on the Choptank river, bounded on the North by the street or road known as Water street, in said town, and a line commencing in the East line of the Main street or road leading to the wharf, at a point directly opposite the Northern line of the aforesaid Water street, and thence running in an Easterly direction the same course as the North line of the aforesaid Water street, 111 feet to the line of the land heretofore contracted to W.
