I may, in some measure, merit it.
Should you think so, Gentlemen, you will no doubt honour me with the necessary Orders & Instructions in proper time. I must, however, intimate to you that it will be impossible for me to leave the Islands untill you shall have made Remittances sufficient to discharge the debts contracted on your acct. by Mr more especially as Mr. V B informs me that he is determined on going home in a short time for this end, I have, I think will be the best Article you can ship; tho' it is now lower than it has been for some time past from an apprehension that the English will say we Vessels they find with American produce on board; and indeed this apprehension seems to be justified by their late conduct in the by condemning two or three French Vessells on that Plea — But as I know proper Pa
