Levy Court.

Citizens of Burrsville were before the Commissioners protesting against the removal of the board walk leading from the town to the M. E. Church by the road overseer. Notice was sent to the overseer, not to disturb the same.

The report of examiners on the Meredith & Williamson road was adopted. The examiners recommended that the road remain as at present laid down, no change or alteration, in their judgment, being necessary.

A Hop at the Town Hall.

An impromptu dance was given in the Town Hall by the young men of town on Friday evening. The music was furnished by a couple of musicians who happened to be in town and were engaged for the evening. Although only a violin and harp were used the music was excellent and the hall was quite well filled with merry dancers. The young ladies were attired in cool, handsome costumes, and a few of the gentlemen wore dress suits. Among the dancers were Miss Grace Stambrugh, Misses Mamie and Katherine Mc Shane, Messrs. Colston, Madara and Callahan, of Ridgely; Miss Jessie Sheridan, of Johnstown, Pa., and Miss Marion Shimer, of Easton, Pa.; Miss Mary Garey, of Williston; Miss Nellie Fisher, Miss Nellie Wilson, Misses Lenore and Nellie Valliant, Misses Frances and Jessie Crouse, Miss Lena Fitzhugh, Miss Mary Quesenberry, Misses Louise and Anna Dukes, Misses Lucy, Helen and Nellie Richardson, Miss Linnie Bryant, Miss Bessie Rochester, Mr. and Mrs J. Stevens, Will Horsey, A. G. Towers, George Fitzhugh, Ed. Fitzhugh, Ernest Cooper, and Aldy Whitby were among the dancers.

BASE BALL.

The Denton base ball team was defeated in a poorly played game on Friday last by the Hillsboro team at Hillsboro. The Denton boys were slower in fielding than they have been in any game this year and many errors helped to swell the score. Denton started with Barnhart in the box, but he was wild and was hit with considerable freedom by the Hillsboro team. In the third inning he was replaced by Davis who with any kind of support would have won his game easily. Hopkins pitched for Hillsboro and he too was touched up pretty lively by Denton, as will be seen by the score. In the seventh inning he was followed by Roberts who pitched good ball for the balance of the game. The score was as follows:

Prouse-Stowell Nuptials.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. H. F. Stowell, Federalsburg, last Wednesday morning, the contracting parties being Miss Anna B. Stowell, third daughter of Mr. Stowell, a preminent merchant of this place, and Harry L. Prouse, of Philadelphia. The folding doors were thrown open between the spacious parlors and the rooms were tastefully decorated with potted plants, ferns and daisies.gA handsome arch was suspended across the bay-window, under which the couple stood. The ceremony was preformed by the Rev. J. M. Lindale of the M. E. Church. At seven o'clock the bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrins Wedding March rendered by Mrs. R. K. Jefferson, a cousin of the groom. The bride was handsomely attired in a mode colored broadcloth trimmed with silk, and satin bands of same color with gloves to match; she carried a lovely bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair fern. The groom wore the conventional black. Only the relatives were present. The happy couple took the early train for the North. The bride is a favorite here and the groom is well known and has many friends. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. They will reside in Philadelphia.—Courier.

E. M. Dean Drowned.

Mr. Somers Blake reported to the officers in town on Saturday afternoon, that the body of a man had been found floating in the river about one and one-half miles above town and was tied to Downes' wharf. The body was discovered by George Harris, a white man, while crossing the river with his wife in a boat. Mrs Harris called her husband's attention to a queer looking object floating under the bushes and when they discovered that it was a dead person was frightened nearly out of her wits. A jury was summoned and with Justice of the Peace Hignutt acting as coroner, made an examination of the body. Dr. Enoch George decided that the man came to his death by drowning and the body was identified as that of E. M. Dean, a tinner of this place. Several members of the jury recognized his clothing and a single business letter address to him was found in the pocket of his coat. Thirty-five cents in change was found in his purse. Fish had disfigured the face so that it was not recognizable.

Dean had been leading a very dispated life for more than a year and so far as can be learned was last seen on Monday of last week. He lived alone in his shop and for several days had complained about seeing things there. He took a friend with him to help get two imaginary men out, and had a loaf of bread and a glass of water sitting on a board for them to eat, as he said they had been there two or three days and must be hungry. How he got into the river, at what time and where, is not known, and the jury rendered a verdict accordingly. The condition of the body indicated that it had been in the water for several days. Undertaker Cooper buried the remains early on Sunday morning in Choptank Cemetery. His relatives have been notified of his death.

Mrs. Sidell presided at the organ, Mr. David Rothenburg played his violin, while the choir never did better, which, no doubt, was due to the excellent playing of the organ and violin. The "Queen Anne" Launch.

The new steel side-wheel steamer Queen Anne, now being built for the Queen Anne's Ferry and Equipment Company, to run between Baltimore and Queenstown, the western termius of the Queen Anne's Railroad, will be lanched to-day at Charles Reeder & Sons' shipyards, foot of Montgomery street South Baltimore, at 2 o'clock P. M. Miss Gittings, will be the sponsor.

The launch will be according to the beautiful Japanese custom. Instead of breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow of the vessel, the sponsor will release a covey of white doves, covered with white flowers. The doves frightened by the blare of steam whistles, will circle away over the surronding masts and the flowers will fall in a shower of fragrance and beauty on the deck of the new vessel.

The custom of releasing doves at a launching had its origin in a pretty story current in Japan. A feudal chief of the Shinto faith, whose devotees worshiped the spirit of their ancestors, had a daughter whose hand was asked in marriage by a chief of another faith. Stern refusal only strengthened the determination of the young couple to wed and an elopement followed.

Pressed by the father's minions, the fugitive lovers hid in a cave of the mountains. As the cave was about to be invaded by the pursuing party two doves flew from the enterance. To the father they betokened the spirts of ancestors protesting at the desecration of their abode. Believing himself rebuked by them he turned away, his dependents went with him and the lovers soon made their way to the shore and put out to sea, going to a distant land, where they lived a happy wedded life.

Ever since Japan has had a navy the custom of liberating doves at the launches has been in vogue, it being intended to symbolize the happy fruition of an endeavor accomplished though peaceful means.

The Queen Anne will be the finest and fastest boat of her class in Baltimore harbor and will make the run to Queenstown—32 miles—in two hours. She is 210 feet in length, with powerful engines and first class appointment throughout, including incandescent lights. Her passenger capacity will be 1,000, though she can easily carry a greater number. Owing to delays during the past winter, from the inclement weather, etc., she will not be ready until the latter part of the excursion season to go upon the route from Baltimore to Rehoboth.

Census Supervisore.

The State Republican Congressional delegation met at the Carrollton Hotel Baltimore Friday afternoon and unanimously decide upon their recommendations for appointments to the office of census supervisors for the State.

Those selected for the offices were:

Mr. Charles R. Schirm, counsel to the Police Board and ex-member of the House of Delegates, for the First Census district, which embraces Baltimore City.

Mr. B. G. Stevens, of Caroline county, for the Second district, embracing Caroline, Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Wicomico and Worchester counties, or the Eastern Shore.

Mr. W. T. S. Rollins, of Prince George county, for the Third district embracing Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Carroll, Charles, Harford, Howard, Prince George, and St. Mary counties, or Southern Maryland, with Harford, Baltimore, and Carroll counties thrown in.

Mr. Adolpus H. Harrington, of Frederick county, for the Fourth district, embracing Garrett, Allegany Washington, Frederick and Montgomery counties.

The pay of the supervisors is $1,000 a year and the office is good until the census work is completed, which, it is estimated, will take about two years. The supervisors will be merators to appoint, which makes the office especially desirable from a political point of view. Mr. Schirm it is stated, can retain his position as counsel to the Police Board, as the position is a legle one, and not under either State or city. Mr. John C. Rose was census supervisor for Baltimore city when the census of 1890 were taken.

It is also understood that the Director of the Census has decided to appoint Jonathan S. Willis supervisor for the State of Delaware. Mr. Willis called at the bureau and had a conference with Director Merriam. The appointment was made this week.
