the party I mentioned by the last Man, returned this Evening to their Camp at Bohemia Manor Church and brought with them five hundred head of Cattle 112 In the mean time there was landed a Body of Troops at Cecil Court House under the Command of Genl.
Gray and Knipthausen upwards of five Thousand with thirty five or Forty peices of Artillery none above four pounders. they say they are to march tomorrow and form a Line across from one Bay to the other, this was said by one of their Majors to a Gentleman who he took for a Friend, their Encampment covers about a Mile square they have Waggons, can't say how many, Horses in bad Condition

This I got from the Gentleman who were in their Camp all Day I met them as they came out, their Intelligence is to be depended on one of them I know before

I shall watch them tomorrow 3 O'Clock Sunday Evening — David Hopkins

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.