REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

[Reported by M. B. Stephens, Sec'y.]

At a meeting of the School Board Tuesday, the following business was presented for its consideration:

Whereas this Board on July 18th received bids for the construction of a high school building in Denton, according to plans and specifications published in the county press, and whereas, the County Commissioners, instead of making a levy for the High School, reduced the school levy $1000 as compared with the levy of one year before, and whereas, it is now apparent to this Board that the specifications were not complete so as to include all the work and that for the permanent good of building, some changes should be made, both in the drawings and size of timbers to be used and for other reasons. Therefore, be it ordered that all the bids be rejected and during this year, new specifications be advertised for a building to be completed for occupancy by Sept. 1, 1900. Ordered, that secretary be directed to return the bids and no publicity be made. Ordered, that note of $5,500 due July 12 be paid off and a new note for $1 500 signed by members of this Board in their official capacity be drawn for two months, dated July 12.

Ordered, that the following appointment of teachers be confirmed: Misses Lillian Greene. Williston; Isabel Percy, Oakland; Mary F. Johnson, Saulsbury's; Elizabeth Blake, Oak Ridge; Mary R. Weedon, Lowe's; Myrtle Gootee, Hickory Hill, and Mr R. J. O. Bullock, Smithville.

Ordered, that contract with the UNION and Journal be renewed for another year to do the board's advertising for $25 each. Ordered, that Mr. Fisher and Sec'y be appointed a committee to visit the colored school building in Denton and make report of needed repairs. Ordered, that Sec'y procure two private rooms to be used as school rooms for the fourth and fifth assistants of Denton school for the coming year. Ordered, that the Examiner limit instructions given in schools with one assistant teacher to Eighth grade and the grades below the Eighth; it being the judgment of this board that it is unwise to maintain the Ninth grade in such schools.

HOLINESS CAMP CLOSED.

The Holiness camp which has been in progress near town for the past ten days, closed on Monday. The first few days were rather disagreable on account of the frequent rains, but the last four or five days were fine. Being close to town the attendance was good almost every evening. Rev. Mr. Truitt and wife failed to arrive on account of the rain and Rev. J. H. Dempster, the converted Catholic remained over until Friday, preaching to a large congregation on Thursday evening. Evangelist Gootee, of Easton returned on Thursday and remained until the close of the camp.

The attendance on Sunday was very large. Rev. T. F. Tabler, of Trappe, preached in the morning, Rev. Mr. Knapp in the afternoon, and Rev. E. H. Dashiel, at night. Excellent order prevailed and the managers had very little trouble in enforcing the rules against promenading.

Another encampment will be held next year and a number of the tents will be allowed to remain on the grounds. A number of new tent sites have been spoken for and several were staked off during the camp, indicating that the encampment will be much larger next year.

The managers report that the camp has been a success along every line and that they are much gratified with the results. The tenters moved home on Monday and the tents that are to be removed will be in a few days.

Too Much Steam for the Occasion.

Several laughable incidents happened in town Tuesday of last week, one at the expense of two of the faithful residing near Concord. It seems they came to town together, but one on learning that no ticket had been named, proposed to the other to shake Denton sand off of their feet, but the other said no, it is a good place to be, and the longer he stayed the better he felt, his disappointment then being almost forgotten for the present. He stayed on, being lost to a Democratic ticket, while the other party left in disgust, footing it home. What else happened we will not state, other than there will be several cold days before they will think one carriage large enough to bring them to town again. Another one of the faithful living in the opposite direction, found it good not to be here, so left via way of the Holiness camp. When he arrived there we are told the burden of his heart changed, and instead of laboring in the interest of a county ticket, his breath was freighted with a vastly different theme; the whole current of his life seems have undergone a change. And there were others.

A Pastor's Vacation.

Rev. J. S. Wickline who has been granted a three weeks' vacation, beginning next Monday, will spend to in different places. Mrs. Wickline will accompany him. From here they go to Washington, where they will visit Mr. Frank Wickline, a brother. From there to Falls Church, a beautiful town on the Virginia side where they served that people a four years' pastorate. Thence to Clifton Forge, a town in the mountains, and then to the region of the White Sulphur Springs and out into the Greenbrier Valley, a country of blue grass. Sunday, 13th inst., Mr. Wickline will preach the dedicatory sermon at White Oak Grove, W. Va., where a new church has been built to take the place of one that has stood for half a century or more. Mr. Wickline will be absent until the first Sunday in September, during which time preaching service will be omitted. Mrs. Wickline will not return until about the first of October.
