THE Democratic paper here which uses slurs for argument, endeavors to give out the impression that because we had double the amount of candidates we had places for on the ticket, there is some hard feeling. Such is not the case. Persons named for places on the ticket, but left off, said they were applicants for nominations, subject to the decision of the convention, and were satisfied with the ticket named. Rather a contrast, isn't it, with the way Democrats are doing things? Weeks have gone by since the Democratic convention, and still places are going a begging on the ticket, something unheard of in the history of the county, and why? But one true answer can be given, and that is, its party scents defeat and its best men refuse to be set up to be knocked down by the Republican ticket; hence we see by last week's Democratic paper a few persons named for places on the ticket, which needs no further comment. But, says that paper, "the Democrats hint at weak spots in it." This shows strength in the ticket, when that political organ can't see anything in it to criticise, but hides behind "what some Democrat say," which is nothing less than a compliment to the ticket. For the want of something else to say, that paper breaks out in another spot and says "the thing for the Democrats to do is to nominate a stronger thicket than the Republicans have." Experience here teaches that its best party men can't be induced to go on the ticket and therefore it is reasonable to expect to see only such men on it as will consider it an honor to be knocked down for the cheap notoriety they will get out of it. The ticket is one that has driven terror into the Democratic camp before the battle has begun. The county can safely be considered Republican with a ticket like the one named on the 15th, and every voter who wants to see the reforms instituted in nation, State and county carried forward to greater efficiency, stand by the party responsible for them. Slurs and insinuations must go for naught, and those who use them are political cowards.

SEVERAL papers in the State during the past few days have been wrestling with the vote buying and selling problem, with but little if any success. It has been tolerated for so many years that now it is considered a necessary evil by a large class of voters. How to remedy the evil is the perplexing question. A man can't be compelled to testify against himself and men who buy them wont, and conceal their identity. In the early days when money was paid to voters, it was then considered a present for party services. The Democratic party in this county at that time was largely in the ascendency, and the money used then was to buy nominations at the primaries, as a regular nomination was considered equivolent to an election, and in order to keep a certain class of their voters in line, money presents were made. But as time passed on things changed, democracy degenerated and even with the lavish use of money it is found impossible for that party to elect its tickets now. Whereas a few years ago large amounts were paid for Democratic nominations, today the party is on record as being unable to name a county ticket for want of suitable candidates for some places. Our leading citizens of all parties deplore the vote trafic in the State and would like to see a fair expression of the people once more. This county is safely Republican if an expression of the people could be obtained, and we believe the same will hold good in the State.

Try our Job Printing.

THIS State was the banner one for having formulated the most silly State platform until the Iowa Democrats were heard from, as follows: "We condemn the war against the Filipinos, believing it to have been inspired by Great Britain for the purpose of producing conditions that will force an Anglo-American alliance, and we record our deep seated antagonism to an alliance with Gr at Britain or any other European power, and express our detestation of the attempt made in British interests to disrupt the friendly relations which have uniformly existed between the United States and Germany. We oppose conquests of the Philippines because imperialism means militarism; because militarism means government by force, and because government by force means death of goverment by consent, destruction of political and industrial freedom, and the obliteration of equality of rights, and assassination of democratic institutions."

The Wilmington Every Evening, (dem.) says "instead of the Democrats going crazy over free silver coinage this year, put it into a platform Last year they were beaten by a plurality of 63,000. They can't do any worse this year." The Democratic press of this State can draw some practical lessons from their platform as theirs is along the same line and has been held up to ridicule throughout the State. While the Iowa Democrats beat Maryland Democrats in their silly platform, Col. Smith is still ahead as an office monopolizer, he now holding one important office and trying to monopolize another. If any one knows of a similar case, let the fact be known. At present the Colonel has the well earned reputation of wanting to gobble all the offices of note in the State.

THE interest manifested in Col. Smith, to which the Free Press refers, is getting to be general in the State. The public think it high time he was showing signs of relinquishing the congressional office in this district and allow his successor to be elected at the general election this fall and save the trouble and expense of another election later, if by any miraculous turn he should be elected governor, which now seems far from it. Of course Mr. Smith is not allowed to do anything without Boss Gorman's consent, he not only being the power behind the throne, but would be governor in case Smith was elected. Yes, our neighbor seems to have waxed warm over the UNION'S way of dealing with the Smith case, and said we "plead for the Col. like a lawyer for his client." If the Free Press can find any comfort in our editorials last week on Col. Smith's irregularities, it is easily pleased. He is our choice as the Democratic nominee for governor and already he shows signs of weakness on the Western Shore, and that before the campaign has opened.

THE impression prevails that Willard Saulsbury and ex-Congressman Handy will pool their issues and trot in double harness in the Senatorial race. Handy's mountings will be silver, of course; but how about Willard's? is the agitating question. Willard has been shy on the white metal, and gold mountings in such a race would present an incongruity which good form would hardly tolerate. We surmise that to Willard almost any old thing would do.—Dover Sentinel.

Of course it would. Over here the Democrats harness up the most ridiculous teams imaginable. In Talbot they are so mixed that one not acquainted with the "getup," has to look the second time to take it all in. Over there gold and silver candidates seem perfectly at home on one ticket, while Pops, they do as commanded. Reports say they wanted to put a Prohibitionist on it, but the party revolted and said it couldn't stand that. Therefore, if the old saying holds good that a Democrat is a Democrat anywhere, our contemporary need not be surprised to find Handy and Saulsbury on the track this fall.

THE silly editor of the Snow Hill Messenger in endeavoring to shield Col. Smith from the attacks of the State press as being an office gobbler, says "he can't resign." This admission only makes a bad matter worse. To say a person can't resign an office implies that he owns it. Is that what Mr. Smith has made the Messenger believe? If some presure can be brought to bear to compel Smith to resign his seat in congress, the people will show him next fall how little they appreciate a second rate politician who is looking so intently for his salary, and at the same time afraid to give up one office for fear the other wont materialize.

EVEN the Democratic Baltimore News seems to be somewhat out with its party and is advising Republicans in Baltimore county to nominate a good ticket, realizing that true reforms come through Republican channels. That's right, the old party has lots of dross to rid itself of before it can legislate to the satisfaction of the masses. The News cannot expect pure water from an impure fountain. Purge the old party a while longer and rid it of its corrupt Gorman, Rasin and other rings and then hope may fill the Democratic breast, brother.

DEMOCRATIC newspapers are endeavoring to make capital for Col. Smith, their nominee for governor, by claiming that he was the author of the free school book bill. The people of Maryland have not forgotten that the Republicans in '95 pledged the enactment of a free school book law and were antagonized by the Democrats. The law was a distinctive Republican measure, in which the Democratic members of the legislature who voted for it simply obeyed the will of the people as recorded at the ballot-box. The free book plan was opposed by the Democrats until they found themselves in a minority.—Annapolis Examiner.

During Smith's campaign a year ago the nicest thing their press could say of him was that he was the "father of the free school book law," and now the same old ruse is being practiced again this year. Democrats seem to think it an honor to pilfer Republican honors and put them on their plumed knight, but they wont fit. He looks like a man with patches on the knees of his pants, wearing a silk hat.

THE Free Press in speaking of the Republican ticket, sees nothing in it to criticise and practically submits it to the voters without comment. This looks as though the convention did its work well, that even its political opponents can't see how it can be attacked. We thank the Democratic press of county and State for the compliments paid it, although it couldn't do otherwise if it wanted to. Some people are good because they have to be and we leave the public to judge in this case.

A leading Democratic paper says: "Since Boss Croker's return from his latest trip to England, mention has been made of his 'private secretary,' Thomas Smith. A correspondent of the New York World calls attention to the fact that Smith draws a salary of $5,000 a year as chief clerk of one of the New York courts, and wants to know why it is that he is employed as a secretary for Croker. The inquiry is pertinent, but is not likely to trouble Croker. What's the use in being a boss if one can't avail himself of the public service and the public revenue? That's what the people of New York City vote for when they vote Croker's machine into power."

IT is amusing to hear the Democratic papers of the county crowing for victory, at the same time its politicians are out beating the bushes for candidates, willing, it is said, to take up with almost anything it can get. Isn't this "presuming a great deal on the credulity of its readers?"

"Tom" Reed has resigned as speaker of the house, although Democrats said he would't. The people want John Smith's resignation, will they keep on wanting? When Reed got ready to resign he resigned. When the people got ready for Smith to resign he said "he couldn't."

MATTERS OF INTEREST.

The bringing of corn to the Eastern Shore for sale is very rarely noted, for there are few sections of our country where this cerial grows more luxuriantly or yields more abuntantly of the ripening grain. Messrs. Stewart & Jarrel, Hillsboro last week bought a large car-load of corn in Chicago, and retailed it to farmers in the vicinity of Hillsboro and Queen Anne.

Hot Day at Rehoboth.

Monday was the hottest day on that beach for many years, and the surf was filled with bathers all day. A severe electrict storm, accompanied by heavy wind, passed over in the evening and lightning crippled the telephone service. After the storm had subsided persons who were on the beach witnessed a magnificent spectacle. A huge ball of fire started from just inside the capes, and rolling with great rapidity upon the crest of the waves, burst with a tremendous explosion just off Rehoboth. It cast a greenish light upon the waters, and ocean and heavens were lighted up many miles around.

Officials of the Queen Anne's rail road state that they will place a large number of amusements there next season, owing to the great success they had with those there this season.
