Dorchester County July the 28 1778

Sir

55 Inclosed here with I send you my Acct. against the State for what provisions I have furnished from this County upon personal of which hope you will find right, should be glad it was convenient to send the Balance by this Opportunity Mr. Stevens as the people are much in want of their Money there will be an additional Acct. to return for the expence of carrying what few cattle I had to the head of Elk as the persons who carried them are not returned, that the Expence now could not be known You will please Sam tuel Bullocks that of what I return, one is still in hand he could not be got when I sent the Others away without a very considerable expence we thought to have him untill a nother Opportunity as he runs at a no expence to the State, the other one I heard passenger of the person I bought him of, and he some odd him as the law hath not pointed out any Method in case, should be glad to know what you would Recommend ~~as that concerning~~ to be done with the person I am Sir your very humble Servant

James Sulivane,

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.