Some counterfeit silver dollars were put in circulation in Cambridge last week. They were detected at one of the banks by the cashier in money received from depositors. The counterfeit is said to be a good imitation and would ordinarily pass current. It has the proper ring, looks all right and would be taken by most people as genuine. It appears that periodically a few of these coins are put in circulation in the country where people are less suspicious of strangers and their money, and where very few, except bank employes, are expert enough to detect them.

THE TIDE HAS TURNED.

During the past week the political tide has risen strongly in favor of the Republican ticket, and all the present indications point to the triumphant reelection of Gov. Lowndes and his associate nominees. In Baltimore city this is particularly the case, and the Republicans there are not only united and harmonious, but are securing the active aid of a large proportion of those Independent Democrats who did so much heroic work for the cause of good government in '95. Day after day has seen accessions to the ranks of those who are working to reelect Gov. Lowndes, and no one need be surprised to see the election of November 7th take on the proportions of a Republican tidal wave. The Malster Republicans, under the leadership of Mayor Malster himself, are doing great work for the ticket, and all hope the Democrats may have had that Republican divisions in Baltimore would aid them has been lost, and they find that they will have to depend entirely on their own exertions. The Republicans are united, a large number of influential Democrats have announced their intention to support Gov. Lowndes, and the coherts of the old ring, are beginning to show signs of distress and desperation in their management of the contest. The people of Maryland are not ready to return the Gorman-Rasin crowd to power, and will repudiate them again on November 7.

A Pretty Wedding at Greensboro.

One of the pritties home weddings seen in Greensboro recently took place at the home of the bride's parents on West Railroad avenue, last Thursday morning at 7.15 o'clock. The contracting parties were Joseph Henry Vansant, of Philadelphia, and Miss Abbie Layton Draper, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bateman Draper of that place. The ceremony was with a ring, and was performed by the Rev. Aloysius Green, according to the rites of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The wedding march was played by Miss Lora Downes, of Denton, with Lohengrin's as a processional and Mendelssohn's as a recessional.

At the appointed hour the bridal party entered the spacious parlor, the bride leaning on the arm of the groom. The procession was led by the ushers, William Purdee Draper, of Denton, a brother of the bride, and Richard Merrekin, of Greensboro. The bride was robed in a handsome skirt of gray poplin trimmed with white silk and ribbon and velvet to match. She wore gray gloves and carried a bouquet of pearl roses. The groom wore the conventional black, with gray gloves and had a boutonniere of peal roses. The parlor was very prettily decorated for the occasion. Over the spot where the bridal party stood during the ceremony was a handsome arch of golden rod and ivy, from the center of which was suspended a large floral bell under which the bridal party stood during the ceremony. Back of this was a profusion of evergreens, roses and potted plants.

After the ceremony was concluded and congratulations received, the bridal couple, escorted by a host of friends, was driven to the depot where they took the 7.52 northbound train for Philadelphia, their future home. The bride was the recipient of many useful and ornamental presents.

Henry L. Cohee,

We are Prohibitionists because we believe the principles the Prohibition party represents, because we believe that the manufacture, importation, exportation, transportation and sale of alcoholic liquors as a beverage should be prohibited by law.

Are not the two old parties playing at "see-saw"? On one end is the Republican party and on the otherthe the Democratic party trying to see which is the heavier. In the middle stands the saloon power, and by leaning its weight to this side or that it determines all the ups and downs. —Ex.

We are opposed to the saloon because of the drunkards it makes, the homes it ruins, the wives it makes widows, and the wives it makes worse than widows because of their drunken husbands, because it takes all the light and happiness out of the lives of thousands of innocent children.

The saloon-keeper is the Patriot par excellence. He is decorating the whole country with red, white and blue.

The red is on the drunkard's nose;
The children's cheeks are white;
The poor wife's eye from drunkard's blow,
Shows blue since yester night.

Patriotism comes high, but we must have it, so it seems.—Ex.

A Prominent candidate on one of the old Party ticks declares Prohibitionists narrow-minded and hypocritical: well, we will leave others to decide this, but we are of the opinion that whoever may be guilty of the latter charge, the old party candidates will not be charged with the former. They are running on rather a broad gauge, it strikes us just now. In fact, isn't it pretty near anything to win.

We are no more in favor of making men righteous by law or legislating them into heaven than some of our Democratic or Republican friends Neither are we in favor of legislating them into perdition. The legalized liquor traffic is sending thousands of our fellow beings there every year, and all know it. And yet for fear of being accused of legislating some poor soul to heaven, men continue to vote this temptation in his way that will send him to eternal ruin. Doesn't the Bible say something about putting temptation in thy brother's way?

A great many say to us, "Yes, I know you are right and would like to see the cause you represent triumph, and I would vote with you if I thought you had any show of winning. But there are so few of you that you can never accomplish anything." Brother, did you ever hear of a man named Gideon who with only three hundred men completely routed the vast army of the Midianites? And how did he do it? Because the Lord was on his side. Brother, if our cause is right as you admit it is, the Lord is on our side, which side are you going to be on?

Christian dollars built and own 140,000 churches.

Church vows license 164,000 ministers.

Christian ballots control 240,000 saloons.

"The American pulpit receives $20,000,000, annually for all it does to save the people."

"The American saloon receives and costs the people $1,200,000,000 to debauch society, build prisons, hold courts, to try murderers it has made."

"Sixty times more money is paid to the saloon than the ministers receive."

The saloon is a legalized murderer.

Is your ballot guilty?

60,000 BOYS WANTED.

Yes, 60,000 boys, the sons of American mothers, to form the victims required to carry out the plan advocated at a meeting of the Liquor League of Ohio, as explained in the address of an officer of that organization. He said:

"It will appear from these facts, gentlemen, that the success of our business is dependent largely upon the creation of appetite for drink. Men who drink liquor, like others, will die, and if there is no new appetite created our counters will be empty, as will also our coffers. Our children will go hungry, or we mustchange our buisness to that of some other more remunerative. The open field for creation of this appetite is among the boys. After men are grown, and their habits are formed, they rarely change in this regard. It will be needful, therefore, that missionary work be done among the boys, and I make the suggestion, gentlemen, that nickles expended in treats to the boys now will return in dollars to your tills fater the appetite has been formed. Above all things create an appetite!"

Quite a number of people from town as well as many from different parts of the county, attended the tournament at Queenstown on Thursday afternoon. The contest was the most spirited that has been seen on this side of the bay for many years. The prizes were all captured by knights from the Western Shore, and amounted to $90 in all. Mrs. G. M. Russum and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, were two of the patronesses. Caroline had no knights in the contest, but the handsome young ladies from our county came near capturing all the crowns. Mr. Howard crowned Miss Louise Dukes queen of love and beauty; Miss Helen Richradson was crowned first maid-of-honor by Mr. Love; Miss Ella Moore was crowed second maid-of-honor by Mr. Mercer; Miss Carrie Eggleston was crowned third maid-of-honor by Mr. Keiler. The last named young lady was from Baltimore. It is proposed to make these tournaments an annual event, at which the Eastern Shore shall contend with the Western Shore for the prizes and honors. Several gentlemen from town went over on the afternoon train to be present at the ball which was held in the evening.

Among the Dentonians present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Miss Louise Dukes, Miss Helen Richardson, Mrs. G. M. Russum, Miss Bessie Rochester, Miss Lena Fitzhugh, Miss Nellie Wilson, Ed. Fitzhugh, Ernest Cooper, Ormond Downes.

IN MEMORIAM.

[Communicated]

Price, Mrs. E. E. Coffin, Mrs. Geo. Garey and Mrs. John Cannon, and eleven grand children, and three great grand children survive her. The funeral was held at Concord Church, Friday Oct. 6, 1899. Dearest grand-mother thou hast left us,
Left us toiling here below;
But when our work on earth is o'e[illegible]
That heavenly [illegible]

We had to lay our dear grand-mother
Beneath the damp cold sod;
But we were willing to submit,
For it was the blessed will of God.
There is a vacant place,
Which never can be filled,
For the voice we loved so dearly,
Within the the grave is stilled.
She suffered much while here below,
But now her sufferings o'er,
For pain and sorrow are not known,
Beyond that blissful shore.
Farewell, dear grand-mother, farewell,
Until we again shall meet,
In that bright and happy home,
Where joy will be complete.
