To Build Trolley Line.

Messrs. Harris & Damon, the Chester engineers, have just received the contract to build 150 miles of trolley road from Bombay Hook, Del., to Chestertown, Md. Twenty miles of this road must built by December 15th next and the road completed within a year. The contractors have given a bond of $17,000 as security. Mr. Damon remarked that though the contract is a big one, still there will be hardly any grading, the country being very level.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at George & Redden's Drug Store. 2

Independent Democrats.

A movement is on foot among the Democrats of Baltimore to form an organization to work for the Republican State tickets during the campaign. Details were not obtainable, but it is understood a statement will be out in a few days.

The purpose is to form a citizens' league, and invitations will be sent to all Independent Democrats to join. The sponsors are understood to be John K. Cowen, S. Davies Warfield, W. Campell Bruce and a number of other gentlemen who have taken an interest in such affairs in the past.

It is expected that the organization will wield considerable influence in uniting the independent element. Good government and sound money are said to be the watchwords. One of the arguments to be used is that, if the Democratic ticket carries Maryland next November, it will be easier for them to carry in 1900 for free silver than if Gov. Lowndes should be re-elected. Many of the members of the Sound Money League, which did such good work in 1896, are expected to join the new association.

What The Farmer Thinks.

Upon a recent visit of the candidates to one the country districts, say an exchange, a farmer was asked what the people of his section intended to do at the coming election, and his answer was as follows:

"Well, I don't argue politics and never did, but if I give a man a job and he does his work well, what's the use of turning him off and getting a new man? Now, Lowndes does his work right up to the handle, and no man could have done it better, though I didn't have part in putting him there. So what is the sense in turning him out and putting a man like Smith, a politician, and one who is eternally after office, in his place.

"Lowndes made a lot of promises about good government, assessment and many other reforms that would benefit the people, and I can't see as he overstated the facts, either, for certainly he has given us everything he promised; there's no denying that.

"Now, John Walter Smith is going around telling the farmers if they don't elect him the State would be overrun by the "niggers" and everything would go the devil, and be quick about it.

"'Pears like Smith don't know what he is talking about, or is trying to scare the people into voting for him. Guess we can spare Smith a spell yet. We will let him serve his term out in Congress and try his hand on the trust. Maybe he will do something there.

"Lowndes will go back for another term, leastwise, that's what the neighbors say, and I'm likewise."

Two Facts Worth Remembering.

"In 240 years, Maryland has had twenty-two proprietary Governors, eight royal Governors and forty six State Executives, and in all that time she has not been blessed with a more upright, conscientious, honest, intellectual, clean-handed magistrate than Governor Lowndes."—Chief Judge James McSherry.

The bitterest partisans will concede that his personal record as Governor has been characterized by exceptional integrity and public spirit, and that has well sustained the dignity and traditions of the high office to which he was chosen four years ago.—Baltimore Sun.
