To Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer Esq.

We the Subscribers Inhabitants of my ladys Manor in Baltimore and Harford, beg Leave to State our Particular Grievances to your Honour in Order to Postpone the Sale, of said Manor — that we may have an Opportunity of Laying our Complaint before the Legislature.

There was a Certain Thomas Brerewood who first Claimed the said manor and Leased a Most part of the same, and when he died Lord Baltimores Agent entend said Manor and Leased maney Plantations and at this Time the Land are held Same under Brerewood Leases and Some under Lord Baltimore and there being a dispute between the heirs of Brer and Baltimore, which was Never determined, this we wish to lay before the Legislature to Endeavor to Settle both Titles, Conformed in Such Manner as Justice and Equity may be done the Tenants. And maney of Said Tenants have Lands which they hold by Certificates from the Proprietors Agents having Regular Paid Rent for the Same, as will appear by their Receipts; and to the Said Agents Promised Leases for Lives as was don to Other Tenants but from the dispute between the Said Proprietors and Other Accidents the Tenants Never had their Promises Complied with, and as they have improved the Said Lands and been Uniformly Attached to the Present Glorious Revolution they wish to have an Opportunity to lay their Particular Grievance before the Legislature May Lady's Manor 12th October 1789.

Daniel Shaw
Daniel Curtis
Thos Anderson
Richard Hutchins
Ephraim Shutledge
Richard Jones Son Arthur
James Pocock
John Sharp
John Sharp Junr
Dr L. Pocock of Cecil

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

Richard Jones Son Richd
Richard Jones Junr
George Sharpe
Vezey Pine
Solo Armstrong
Nicho Hutchins Junr
John Stewart
Richd Jamison Son of Richd
Augustine Yoshell
Thos Sparks
[illegible]