of the Publick but part of the price paid for the articles consumed by the Armies & fleet, but a set of Men void of principle, and with which no other Country were so much abounded as the United States, are forever on the Wing to engross every article of which the publick are like to become purchasers, and thereby amass wealth not less Wickedly than highway Robbers —

I have the honor to be

Your Excellency's most

Obedient Humble Servt

Jno Wadsworth Com Gen. pro.

His Excelly Jno Johnson Esqr —
