Church Work in Caroline.

The Peninsula Methodist in its last issue says: "Word comes from a friend that a good revival has been held at Central M. E. Church with 24 accessions. All joined the church that professed Christ. This is as it should be. An Epworth League has recently been organized at Denton with 30 members. Extra meetings at Denton will begin with the New Year. We are glad to note that Denton is in the swell of the rising tide spiritually. Who would expect otherwise with such an all-around man as Bro. Wickline at the helm?"

The Juniors Elect Officers.

Caroline Council of Junior Mechanics elected officers on Monday night as follows: Junior Past Councilor, C. H. Stewart; Councilor, C. Harry Whitby; Vice Councilor, W. K. Scotton; Recording Secretary, S. F. Cole; Assistant Recording Secretary, Virgil Moore; Financial Secretary, C. P. Dunning; Treasurer, W. F. Murphy; Conductor J. C. Gochnour; Warden, Elmer Gochnour; Inside Sentinel, Willoughby Nowell; Outside Sentinel, Samuel Ewing; Chaplain, Z. T. Hutchinson. B. H. Johnson was elected Representative to the Sick and Death Benefit Association and Z. T. Hutchinson Representative to the State Council. The old officers retire at the end of the year. Several new members have joined the order during the last few weeks.

Mr. Barnhart may lose an Eye.

Mr. J. S. Barnhart, whose farm is just outside of town, met with a very painful accident on Thursday last from which he may lose the sight of one of his eyes. He and one of his sons were threshing beans and while shaking up the vines Mr. Barnhart stooped over just as his son lifted a fork full of the vines. In some way the fork came in contact with his head and one of the sharp tines of the fork penetrated his left eye. He was unable to see with it afterward and took the evening train for Baltimore, accompanied by Dr. P. R. Fisher, where he went to the Maryland University Hospital. At the hospital the eye was found to be in a serious condition, the physician stating that he feared it would be necessary to remove it. Mr. Barnhart returned home on Monday, and hopes with care to be able to avoid an opperation. At present he can only distinguish darkness from light and the recovery of his sight is thought to be doubtful.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying "Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. a continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts per bottle at George & Redden's Drug Store. 5

TWO PRETTY WEDDINGS.

NICHOLS-MOORE.

The marriage of Mr. J. Edward Nichols, a prominent young merchant of this place, and Miss Sarah Lillian Moore, daughter of Isaac J. Moore, Esq., was solemnized at the Methodist Protestant Church, in this place on Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Potted flowers and evergreen added beauty and brightness to the scene over which the light from the chandelier fell with a mellow glow. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of easter broadcloth and the groom wore the customary black suit. Miss Bertie Seaman, of Philadelphia, rendered the wedding march, and as the familiar strains floated out into the air the happy couple approached the altar preceded by the ushers T. Lane Moore and Charles Warren, of Philadelphia; Albert G. Towers and Fred. N. Nichols, of Denton. At the altar they were met by Rev. W. J. D. Lucas, who assisted by Rev. J. M. Dickey, performed the wedding ceremony in a most impressive manner. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride at 11 o'clock at the bride's home, and immediately after the ceremony at the church they were driven to Ridgely where they took the northbound train for a trip to Washington and Baltimore. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Nichols will reside in their new home on Main street.

PASTORFIELD-EMERSON.

The M. E church, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, was the scene of a pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Loretta Emerson, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca A. Emerson, and Mr. J. Howard Pastorfield, one of the leading merchants of this place. Promptly at the appointed hour, the bride and groom elect, entered the church, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Albert G. Towers, Howard Melvin, W. Carroll Pastorfield and Dr. J. Robert Rochester. Prof. James Swann presided at the organ and rendered Lohengrin's march. They were met at the chancel by Rev. J. S. Wickline, who read the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of Pearl Lansdown, trimmed with white chiffon, mirror velvet and applique, and carried carnations The groom wore the conventional black. The church was prettily decorated with evergreens, ferns and potted plants, as was also the bride's home. The light from the two large chandeliers threw a beautiful soft glow for the occasion and added to the scene.

After the wedding a reception was held at the bride's home. The presents were numerous and pretty.

Mr. and Mrs. Pastorfield will keep house in a short time on Main street.

Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. J. M Emerson and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Ansonia, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Merrick, Miss Beale Merrick, Misses Lydia, Minnie, Maggie and Clara Pastorfield, and R. Kemp Bartlett, of Trappe.

The Eastern Shore Telephone Co.

A number of representative business men of the principal towns of the peninsula met at the office of Thomas L. Day, Ridgely, on Thursday morning December 21st. The object of the meeting was the organization of the "Eastern Shore Telegraph and Telephone Company," with the maine office at Denton, the articles of corporation of same having put on record in the Clerk's office at Denton on Wednesday. The incorporators are T. L. Day, Wm. H. Dewease, Jas. A. Trazzare, Fred R. Owens and Jacob E. Ellwarger, and company is formed as stated in the articles for the "purposed of owning, leasing, constructing and operating telegraph and telephone lines through the State of Maryland or from or to any points within said State or upon the boundaries thereof and for the transaction of any business in which electricity over or through wires may be applied to any useful purpose."

The number of shares in said company are 4000 of par value of $25 each and the company is limited to a term of 40 years. The following directors were elected for one year: Harry A. Richardson, president; Judge W. R. Martin, Thomas L. Day, F. R. Owens, Dupont Walker, Geo. W. Woolford, G. M. Price, Jr., Wm. H. Baker Wilber W. Hubbard. Thos. L. Day was elected vice-president, F. R. Owens, Secretary and Dupont Walker treasurer. The fact that Mr. Richardson is now president of the Diamond State Telephone Company shows that the two will work together.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle Rive, Ill., says, "After suffering from Bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it, more." It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles.—George & Redden.

He Dodged Before and after Election.

Hon. John Walter Smith dodged voting on the "currency bill." This is in keeping with his course on the financial question when he was making his canvass for Congress. Col. Smith's action on this most important question augurs ill for the people of Maryland, for they were led to believe that he was a man who was not afraid to register his opinion on any subject of great pith and moment to the people; but his cowardly skulking on the currency ...cause many to doubt ...his promises when

May Control Them All.

The air has been rife with railroad and steamboat rumors for several days past and here is another one:

"The movement," said a prominent railroad man, "has been expected in some quarters for some time and the negotiations have been so quietly conducted that it was a surprise that a leak had let the matter out. There is well-grounded suspicion that the Pennsylvania Railroad is behind this step to secure the Wheeler Line, and there are other lines that come to Baltimore which, it is thought, will be also absorbed.

"The Pennsylvania Railroad, which has lately acquired the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway property and the steamboats of that company, is preparing to consummate a deal for other companies, thereby giving it absolute control of all the Eastern Shore lines. This statement is strengthened by the fact the Pennsylvania Railroad has recenty acquired the Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad, which runs from Bombay Hook, Del., to Chestertown, Md., and in a measure parallel the route of the Queen Anne Railroad. This newly acquired road will figure in the new move which is now on tap, as it is known there is a charter already in existence which grants to the road power to continue its tracks from Chestertown to Rock Hall, from which point the Chester River Steamboat Company now carries freight and passengers. The proposed plan is to extend this road to Rock Hall, which is about an hour and a quarter's run from Baltimore by steamer. This would enable the Pennsylvania Railroad to bring both passengers and freight from points in Delaware to Baltimore in a shorter time than can now be done over its present route by way of Porter's and Newark. In addition to shortening of the route, the road will pass through the most fertile part of the Eastern Shore and will give to the Pennsylvania Railroad entire control of all the railroads on the peninsula except the Queen Anne's, and this property may also be acquired if the present proposed program goes through; for if the Pennsylvania Railroad to connect with the proposed extension of the Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad from Rock Hall to Baltimore and would by this proposed route be able to make the trip from Rock Hall to Baltimore in an hour and a quarter, while it takes the Queen Anne two and a quarter hours to come from Queenstown to Baltimore, this would bottle up the Queen Anne road, which is practically surrounded by lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which now reaches every county of the Eastern Shore, while the steamers of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway and the Wheeler Line cover every available landing place along the water-ways of the peninsula.

I am prepared to hear of the consummations of these plans at any time. I know, as others do, that the Pennsylvania Railroad never leaps into the dark, but when once started she usually lands the object of her persuit.

Judge Russum has filed in the Circuit Court for Caroline County a bill asking for a decree declaratory of the interest held by James W. Holt as copartner of the late C. C. Wheeler in certain wharves in Caroline and Talbot counties owned by the Wheeler Transportation Company, and for the appointment of a trustee to convey Captain Wheeler's interests. The bill is an amicable one, as all the facts are admitted, and is necessary because two of the Wheeler heirs are minors. It looks as if the Wheeler Line will pass into this hands, and this action is the first step toward the delivery of the title. Judge Russum says the line will continue to be operated as heretofore, but he declines to say who the probable owners will be. It is rumored the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has bought the property.
