13 requested Mr. President Brice to take back the Council's Letter of the 15th and reconsider it. He answered that it had been considered, and that he did not care to take it to the Council. The Intendant had then no alternative left him, but to answer their Letter according to the best of his Judgement and recollection, And if any thing has escaped from him which may seem in the least to call in question the Conduct of the Council, they have to attribute it to themselves and not to their
