Baltimore Jany 8th 1782 —

May It Please Your Excellcy

I Wrote the 29th Ult.o and informed your Excellcy of Compleating the Purch.e of 30 Suits Cloaths &c. and of the Terms on which I obtained Credit. Some of the first Payments became Due Yesterday and I had Pledged my self for the Punctual Payment was obliged to Borrow Money to Save my Credit. I shall be much obliged to your Excellcy to furnish me Immediately with Tobacco or Flour (Flour will be the Readiest Sale) to Enable me to Comply with my Contracts — and Inform me if I may Sell the Tobacco Notes I now have on hand at 15/6 pcr.

I am Your Excellcy
Most Ob.t Servt.
