DENTON, MARYLAND.

THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1902.

THE President's attitude on the trust question is attracting unusual attention. Representative Littlefield, of Maine, it is announced, will introduce a bill providing for effective trust control which will have the support of the Administration. The President regards the trust question as a thoroughly live issue--a problem ready for immediate solution, and it is stated that he can be depended upon to push the measure with all the strength of his administration. His earnestness in the matter is not to be mistaken, and if Congress concludes likewise there is good prospect for the enactment of anti-trust legislation next winter. In undertaking this course, the President is, of course, antagonizing prowerful influences. He knows that the great business interests regard his attitude with misgiving, and he is frank in saying that he has no intention of keeping "hands off" but at the same time he tells those about him that he will never support any legislation which can possibly bring about anything in the nature of a business panic.

THE corner in corn in Chicago seems to have collapsed. The break on Tuesday was nearly 20 cents in two days or from 90 to 70 cents per bushel. The corner at one time promised many millions profit, and the farmer whose well filled cribs line the tracks of nearly every rail road entering Chicago is held responsible for the disappointing ending of the corner. There were substantial reserves from the bumper crop of 1900 and the large yield of 1901. This corn has been held for a satisfactory market. The farmer did not begin to take advantage of the situation until the price of July got up in the 70, and when it finally reached 90 cents the Chicago market was [illegible]d with cash corn.

[illegible]ERE has been some little quiet [illegible]oming among the Democratic [illegible]s for the Speakership of the [illegible]se should that body through any fa[illegible]volcanic disturbance become D[illegible]ratic next year. In this connection the Honorable J. D. Richardson believes that he would [illegible] titled to that hon[illegible] did his [illegible], to stir up some[illegible]ions for a campaign issue—he did his best.

IF WE are to believe that political poet and idealist, the Hon. Henri Watterson, star-eyed goddess, the Democracy, is the only thing now standing between the country and a yawning, abyssmal chasm. It would be unfortunate for the Democrats if the country should happen to surge over a bit.

SINCE the filling of the Federal offices of the State the weeds are beginning to grow in the path to the White House, heretofore worn so smooth by the feet of politicians more or less influential.

KING EDWARD'S improvement is so encouraging that it is now expected that the coronation will take place early in August. He has been moved on board his yacht for a change of air.

Is Jackson the Man?

There does not seem to be much doubt but that the name of Hon. William H. Jackson will be before the Republican convention of the First Congressional District. Is he the man for the party at this time? From present prospect he will be nominated should no further opposition arise than is now visible. He has been successful in securing the appointment of the Sub-Treasurer and whether he stands in with Senator McComas or not, his influence and the influence of his district are not to be despised. In speaking of him the Salisbury Courier says:

Considering Mr. Jackson's nomination as settled the Democrats are very much at sea. We are told that they held a conference at Ocean City last week in an endeavor to centre upon someone who would have a show to defeat him. From everything that could be learned, all of the leaders finally arrived, during the discussion, at the point where they could see no hope unless Ex Governor Elihu E. Jackson could be persuaded to make the contest against his brother. It is felt that to nominate a comparatively unknown candidate from up the shore would be suicidal so far as the counties below the Choptank are concerned, as Hon. William H. Jackson is especially well known and popular here. All the northern tier of counties are naturally Republican—though perhaps by small majorities—except Queen Anne and Cecil, and neither of these can be counted on for a very heavy vote in an off year. Therefore if Hon. Wm. H. Jackson leads the Republicans, a Democrat near his home must be selected. And they all fight shy. Hon. Joshua W. Miles has had enough of it; Hon. W. F. Applegarth has troubles of his own and is eliminated; Hon. John P. Moore tried it last time and failed. The Democrats therefore turn to the Ex-Governor as almost their last resort.

It is said confidentially that if Ex-Governor Jackson absolutely refuses, as he has said he would, that Mr Moore will be called upon to enter the lists again. He is the best of a bad bargain and the probabilities are that he would be defeated. But without a candidate with the wealth to conduct the campaign or with a stranger to the people, the Democratic feeling is that the election had as well be allowed to go by default.

Saves A Woman's Life.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung Trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by George & Redden, Dunton; Hugh Duffy, Hillsboro. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Cleveland's False Position.

Former President Cleveland is again trying to commit his party to "Tariff Rreform" as its leading issue.

In the course of his speech before the Dave Hill harmony meeting in New York last week Mr. Cleveland made this remarkable statement:

No one doubts today that a high Protective Tariff has proved the "parent of trusts," just as was predicted it would.

We call this a remarkable statement because it was made by an honest man who told a deliberate untruth. We say "deliberate" because his knowledge is too broad and his prominence too great to admit of any other conclusion.

Mr. Grover Cleveland cannot cite a single fact in the industrial history of the world to prove that the Protective Tariff is the "parent of trusts," and no one knows it better than he does, for great knowledge of ancient history is not necessary to become possessed of the facts of industrial development.

The first trusts ever organized in the world came into existence in Free-Trade England. For years trusts have flourished there, and when several years ago public protest was made against such combinations of capital Hon. William E Gladstone said:

You might as well endeavor to stay the formation of the clouds, the falling of rain or the flowing of the streams, as to attempt by any means or in any manner to prevent organization of industry, association of persons and aggregation of capital to any extent that the ever growing trade of the world may demand.

Trusts are being organized in England today and Mr. Cleveland knows it. He also knows, as everybody knows, that there is no Protective Tariff in England, and yet he brazenly tells the people of this country that the Protective Tariff, which had not been even thought of when trusts were born, is the father and mother of trusts.

Mr. Cleveland has a monumental gall to stand before a great audience of American people and make an assertion which he knows is absolutely false, and he denounces William J. Bryan as a demagogue. The gloom and blight of Cleveland Free-Trade began to fade when the advonce agent of prosperity—William McKinley—was elected to the Presidency. The people have not forgotten that gloom and that blight. Mr. Cleveland had better go way back and sit down.—New Haven Ledger.

—The citizens of Chestertown have raised the amount required to make up the $2,500 purchase money for additions to right of way needed to give access to the Pennsylvania Railroad for a station in the business centre of the town.

Why cough your ribs loose when one 25c bottle of Ramon's English Cough Syrup will relieve you? We have it, and know what it will do. Try it. R. J. Colston, Denton; J. R. Davis, Ridgely.

—It is said that there is an unusually large amount of money on deposit in the Salisbury banks at this time, due to the prosperity of the farmer. There is generally a good supply of cash at this time of the year but this year is exceptional.

We sell all kinds of blood medicines, but are frank to say that Ramon's Iron Tonic gives results not even claimed for the ordinary remedies. $1.00. R. J. Colston, Denton; J. R Davis, Ridgely.

—About a month ago Joshua Smith, son of Charles Smith, who lives in Harrington, Del., had a mild case of smallpox. Now Mattie, a daughter, has it. The house is quarantined and every precaution is being taken to prevent the disease from spreading.

Ramon's Nerve & Bone Oil, true to its name, penetrates to the nerve and bone, driving out pain and effecting miraculous cure in acute rheumatism. 25c. R. J. Colston, Denton; J. R. Davis, Ridgely.

—Allegany county has appropriated $5,000 for the construction of a sample modern road. The Government furnishes the expert who will direct the work and the county pays for labor and material. The National pike and Bedford roads will be the sites of the experiment.

There are more suffers from constipation than from any other enemy of our race; there is a long train of annoying ills as a direct result, and there is nothing so effective in its treatment as Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets. 25cts, sample free. R. J. Colston, Denton; J. R. Davis, Ridgely.

—The Lewes Board of Education has elected Dr. Willian P. Orr president, F. C. Witbank secretary and A. P. Ingram treasurer. It also elected the following teachers: G. W. Mitchell, principal; Miss Powers, Miss Linda Hudson, Miss Maggie Norman, Miss Annie Rench, Miss Josephine Willard and Miss Fisher.

"I am using a box of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets and find them the best thing for my stomach I ever used," says T. W. Robinson, Justice of the Peace, Loomis, Mich. These Tablets not only correct disorders of the stomach but regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffy, Hillsboro; J. R. Davis, Ridgely.

—Building in Salisbury is on the boom, all local carpenters and builders being rushing with work. The manufacturing interests of the town have grown enormously in the past year, drawing a large number of new families to the town to find places in the factories. The Salisbury shirt factory is being enlarged to twice its former capacity, and the wood and basket works are increasing their output. Skilled work is becoming scarce owing to the big demand, and all lines of business in the town are prospering.

"The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you desire to appear." That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturers has been fully up to the high standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can always be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffy, Hillsboro; J. P. Davis, Ridgely.

—The farmers of the marsh or "neck districts in the lower part of Kent county, Del., have taken up a new industry. It is that of raising ducks by the wholesale and frequently the steamer Emma Reis, one of the boats running from Milford to Philadelphia, takes as many as 200 ducks at Malony's Landing and elsewhere. It has been discovered that the marsh adjacent to the Mispillion and the bay shore seems to be just the place for the business, and this gives promise of becoming a profitable venture. The ducks mature early and are sent to the cities.

Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured and which is always kept on hand at the home of ye scribe. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer time.—Lansing, Iowa, Journal. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffy, Hillsboro; J. R. Davis, Ridgely.

—Workmen are busy getting freight cars in readiness for peach shipments at the Delaware Railroad yards in Wilmington. About 1,000 cars were fitted up last week.

—The potato famine in northern markets must, by this time, have been overcome. For several days during the past week the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk railroad, below Delmar has been blocked with heavy potato trains. It is said that never since the Peninsula road has been built has a crop served to tie it up, but the trains of forty cars, loaded to the top with the heavy round potatoes, have completely choked traffic, nearly all of the through Delaware railroad passenger trains running late as the result.

Cut this out and take it to R. J. Colston, s. Denton; Hugh Duffy's, Hillsboro; J. R. Davis', Ridgely. Drug Stores and get a box of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. The best physic. They also correct disorders of the stomach. Price 25 cents.

—David Hoffman, foreman of the construction gang of Western Union telegraph linemen, with headquarters in, while superintending the removal of the company's wire and poles from the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad, three miles south of Elkton, was struck and killed by a New York and Washington south-bound express train Friday afternoon. Hoffman was standing on the edge of a tie on the south-bound track, and at the time he met his fate a freight train was passing north. Deceased was about 40 years of age.
