stagnation of business was apprehended, as there was not a quorum to do business. Under the pressure of this situation they requested that the Vacancies in that Court should be filled, and it appearing to us absolutely necessary that the requisite Appointments should be made, we have accordingly commissioned Richard Potts and Littleton Dennis, Esquires, as Judges of the Court of Appeals.

We have the honour to be
With great Respect
Your Obed: Servants

Benj. Ogle