Specie at a good price, and we hope the Treasury will soon be in a Condition to pay those demands upon the Public, for which the Honor of the State is pledged. We need not urge any Reasons to convince you of the impropriety of delay: Among the Blessings of Peace our Citizens ought to have the earliest Evidence of a Restoration of Public Faith —

With great Regard & Respect

We are — Sir

Yr. most Ob. Hble

Servts.

Wm Pitts