whose liberality, heretofore, in support of this meritorious and important establishment, induces them to hope that an application from the Inspectors, to that Humble Body, at their next session, will produce ample measures to furnish the necessary extension of accomodation — The Committee have furnished a list herewith, stating the number of Criminals, and the different Occupations at which they are employed. —

Richardson Stuart.

Luke Fierman;

David Burke

A. Welsh

Peter Finch

James Martin