to such as can apply for them; and, if the Council please, to forward the others to me, to be delivered to the proper persons. It may prevent trouble from frequent applications to the executive, and will, very surely, be a relief to the unhappy dependents upon that bounty, who reside at a distance from Annapolis.

I am, Sir, With great Respect

Your Most Obedient

Humble Servant

D. H. Williams

Feby 12: 1790
Geo. Williams

His Excellency

Govr. Howard