the consequence of their superiority.

Captain Hannah has never yet made his appearance, which surprises me as from your Letters I have expected him for six weeks past. He would have been very useful – the Cannon from the head of Elk are not arrived – the Military Stores from Philadelphia are delivered.

Major Rivardi I presume, and Mr Bedinger will write to you for an encrease of funds for mounting the pieces &c in the transmission of which I pray you to admit no delay

I have the honor to be &c
