And I also take the liberty to request that your Excellency would be pleased to order a similar list to be transmitted to this Office agreably to the forms requested in my former letter.

There are several States which have paid partially their invalids subsequent to the 5th of March last. If Maryland should be in that predicament it will have this point arranged as in similar cases. At present no provision is made to reimburse any State which may have made partial advances, as the existing Act of Congress authorize payment only to the actual invalids, or their representatives.

I have the honor to be
With great respect
Your Excellency's
Most Obedient
Humble Servant.

R M Cox
Secretary of War

His Excellency
Governor Howard.
