divide their Vessels into the Service you demand. And as to ours I beg you will be lieve that she should have been at your Service, and that I do most sincerely regret, that I have it not in my power to add a spirit rending ache to the present wanton depreda of the Enemy. —

I am
Y. Excellency's most
Ob. Serv.

R. D. Moore