Mr. Brothers resign'd I mm.ly appointed Mr. Bringle, the troops have been detain'd for want of waggons and I have at length been compell'd to exercise force When I am convinced that small Exertions on the part of the Officer would have made it unnecessary - our Desertions have been numerous, last night my Quartr Mr. having a surplus of Blankets, I order'd a parcel to be cut up for Coats & am now informed that Mr. Gale will send us Clothes to Cumberland - I fear many will perish before they can arrive at that place ... I understand that Medicine has arrived the Troops have nearly all marched, the
