Sir Salisbury 5 July 1781

I Recd from John Travers, relative to the Conduct of the Barcr on Mr Samuel Garrock that he had gone to portmouth with him, and had taken a protection, and had Joined in to assist them in Trade, with the Enemy, to furnish them with Sundrys. Mr Garrock immediately on wing board in a small Schooner, Loaded with Flour Upon Mr Garrock, I have taken his Bond with Good Security, to appear Before Your Excellency &c, in five days, to answer the Charges against him, the Vessel he is in Belongs to Mr Robt Rose at Rose's Landing in Virginia, the Flour Mr Garrock says Belongs to a Mr Gray in Baltimore, the other part of the Cargo to Capt Fornwal and Mr Gurock — I am extremely Sorry that Mr Gurock has fallen in to this Disagreeable Situation, he is a person that has fought Bravely in our Service, in the Beginning of the war, and if the Charges should be proved which Travers alledged against me could it must prove fatal to him, If you Did not the Cause should Detain Mr Garrock please
