maining in my Hands consist of little more than my own Correspondence with the various persons connected with the Transaction of this tedious Business, with a small part of which I have been compelled to trouble your Excellency and the Government of the United States. —

If any further Information should be thought necessary, I hope soon to have the Honor of giving it in person. —

I have the Hons to be with the highest Respect and Esteem Your Excellency's
Most Obedient Hble Servant

Wm Perkins