Samuel Chase
vs
The State of Maryland

94

It is agreed that all resolves votes or proceedings of either branch of the Legislature of this State published by the Treasurer thereof and all instructions communications or letters by the Governor and Council to the plaintiff or his agents for the recovery of the Bank Stock and any written communication either from or to the Executive of the United States or any minister thereof to the Court of Great Britain that are in the Office of the Governor and Council or which shall be under the hand of the Governor and Council respecting the Bank Stock or the agency of the plaintiff concerning the same; also any correspondence between the Executive of this State and the President of the United States respecting the appointment of Mr. Pinkney as commissioner respecting the Bank Stock and any instructions to him by the State or the Executive of the State or any resolves of the Legislature or any instructions by the Executive to Joseph H. Nicholson for the sale of the Stock or any correspondence or communication made by Pinkney & Nicholson or either of them to the Legislature ~~or either~~ or Executive shall be received in evidence and to have the same effect and none other as if the same were in the most formal manner proved at the trial of this cause — Before monday next it is agreed that the papers vouchers and pleadings that either party means to use

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND