I have perused Mr Russells Bill against me, and perceive an Injunction is obtained against Mr Grove, and the Bank to prevent a Transfer of any part of the stock, to the State, without the order of the Court; and for relief, he prays, that so much of the stock may be sold out as will reimburse him the Value of his third of the Iron works, which he estimates at £10,000 Sterling; and that the residue may be retained, under order of the Court, until the State past an Act to redeem and secure him his other Confiscated property, or pay him out of the Stock, the value thereof, which he estimates at 5, or 6,000 £ Sterling; and that before the remainder is ordered to be Transferred, the freedom of Collecting and securing his debts, in the State may be, by law thereof, be properly secured to him. after these three things are done, he consents to join in a Transfer of the residue. —

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND

If I comprehend his Bill he grounds his claim to be reimbursed out of the stock, the Value of his share of the Works on this principle, that the

State