11 Decree can pass to affect the property of the State. If Mr. Russell cannot obtain a Decree for Compensation and the Injunction shall not not be dissolved on the Answer and Application of Mr. Grove (which he ought to attempt, or he will not, in my Opinion, discharge his Duty to the State as its Trustee) I cannot discover how Mr. Russell can be benefitted, if the Stock should remain forever untransferred. If I appear and on my Answer the Bill should be dismissed, or the Injunction dissolved, I could gain nothing by it for the State, but to compel Mr. Russell to Transfer the Stock I must (if it could be done) file a Bill against him. On Consideration of the whole Subject I have determined to propose to Mr. Russell, that if Mr. Grove and the Bank will appear and Immediately Answer, that I will also appear and Answer; provided he will agree to an Argument at the Appearance Court, and if the Chancellor shall dismiss his Bill, or dissolve the Injunction in the whole, or in Part, that he will, if in the whole, Immediately thereafter transfer all
