not consider the Person applied to Mr Russell had of any force, but I repeated, as the fact was utter he alleged, that being satisfied of his Person he would waive his objection. On my return from Bath, where I received my Seventh Journal for about three Weeks, I received another letter from Mr Whatterson, of the 27. September, in which he wrote thus, "that he had my State of the Case before the Attorney & Solicitor General, and that he expected to obtain their Opinion, during the Next Session of Parliament, for the Christian Knowledge." — On the 6th of January Mr John Hoyle of the Northern Circuit came and Partook of Mr. Ogden Hawley's Port with me Hands a Copy of the Case stated by the Directors for the Opinion of Counsel, in which as some facts were omitted, I immediately drew up a Copy of Remarks pointing out the Errors, Misrepresentations, and Omissions, and on the 9th I left it at Mr.
Lloyd's Hemp, he being gone to Coggeshall, Mr.
