lined to settle the affair to our mutual satisfaction.
On Friday (the 18th) I received from him a letter of the Day preceding, in which, adverting to the Conversation on Saturday last as stated by Mr. Roposed, "that such a portion of the Bank Stock should be secured to him, as would be an equivalent for his real Off (from the Confiscation of his property); and added "that he might to be permitted to receive the Interest of such Stock as the first Part of this proposition was the same as the one in his letter of Monday the 11th, and the Objection in his letter of Monday to receive the Interest was contrary to the proposal of an absolute property in the Principal, I therefore immediately, on Thursday last (the 19th) I requested Mr. Russell to explain himself; and on Saturday last (21st) he wrote Me, "that seeing by my unusual fatigue, and the Conference, that had taken place on the subject of the Bank Stock, that as Trustee for the mutual benefit of the State of Maryland and
