safety of the Trust reposed in him, prevent McRaffells postponing handing off his money to should obtain it by a Decree in Chancery" —

As any one of the Trustees can receive the Dividend, & McGowan will probably not be at all any more, & I suppose McRaffell will transmit this Money, & thereby get annually into his Hands 2,640 dy, which in four Years will indemnify him, I submit to your Lordship whether it will not be advisable, & lawful, to enable, & request McGowan to remit the Dividend, & purchase Stock:

With the highest Respect & Esteem I Have the Honour to be, Sir,
Your Lordship's
Most obedient Servant

Saml. Chase