31 of W. Sampson Starbury (who, or a Friend of his, accompanied W. P. in the different Journeys mentioned in his Letter) and that the Expences of every Description including the 200 Guineas to Captain Goodrich, should be paid by him out of it — of these Expences, which he was quite sure the Government of Maryland wd. not desire or permit him to bear personally, even in the first Instance, he is in daily Expectation of a Statement — and as soon as it arrives he will take the earliest Opp.y of laying it before the Gov.r of Maryland & accounting for paying the Balance if any. —

Statement — shewing the Amount of the Cash — when paid to Mr. Pinkney. —

Amount of the Cash, according to the Accountant General's Report (of which a Copy has been sent to the Gov.r of Maryland) —	£5.263.3.3
Deduct the taxes Cost p.d by the Acc.t Gen.l under the Order of the Lord Chancellor of Dec.r 1803 —	3.487.7.6
remained —	£1.775.15.9
add the Dividends since rec.d by the Acc.t Gen.l Viz.t
January 1804 — On the 5 p.C. Navy —	£174.8.0
April — On the Bank Stock —	3532.18.0
— — — On the Ann.s 1797 —	207.17.8
July — On the Navy again —	174.8.0
	4089.11.8
Sum paid to Mr. Pinkney —	£5.865.7.5

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

The Dividends on the Bank Stock are made in April & October — On the Ann.s 1797 in the same Months — on the Navy Ann.s in January & July. — Another Dividend on the Bank Stock & the Ann.s 1797 is of course due & Mr. Pinkney has received. —

Prices of Stocks on the 1st of August. — { Bank Stock — 161. 160 3/4 — 5 p.C. Navy — 92 & a fraction. — 5 p.C. 1797 — 99 & a fraction.