Denton, Maryland.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 28, 1904.

Two "Jim Crow" bills were introduced in the House last week by Mr. Kerbin, of Worcester, one applying to steamboats and the other to railroads. A traveler refusing to comply with the law may be fined not less than $5 and be ejected at the next stopping place.

THE admission department of the St. Louis Exposition has made the official announcement that season tickets will be sold at $25 each. These tickets are good for each day of the exposition, from April 30 to December 1. The tickets will not be transferable, and the purchaser's photograph will be attached to each ticket for identification purposes.

A SQUAD of fifteen picked men of Baltimore police force was taken to Annapolis by I. Freeman Rasin to assist him in electing a United States Senator for Maryland. This action on the part of the boss has called forth denunciation from all sides. Things have come to a pretty pass in Maryland, when a Democratic boss can take officers of Baltimore from their city duties to the State capitol for the purpose of intimidating the members of the General Assembly into electing a ring candidate to the United States Senate. The people however, by their votes, have put these men in power and we will have to grin and bear it. We have got to stand it whether we like it or not.

IN HIS call for the National Republican Convention issued at Washington Chairman Hanna says: "In accordance with established custom and in obedience to instructions of the National Convention of 1900 the National Republican Committee directs that a National Convention of delegates representatives of the Republican party be held at the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President to be voted for at the Presidential election, Tuesday, November 8 1904, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it, and that said convention shall assemble at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, June 21st, 1904."

VARIOUS Democratic papers continue to circulate the report that Senator Hanna will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for President this year, notwithstanding the fact that he has often and positively asserted that under no circumstances would he be a candidate In Washington a few days ago, Senator Platt, of New York, when asked if there were not many Republicans in his State who favored the nomination of Senator Hanna, replied: "I will answer that by saying that Senator Hanna is not a candidate for the Presidency. I have just had a long talk with him. He will not allow the use of his name. In addition to that he is for the nomination of Roosevelt There need be no doubt on that score." This seems to settle this question.

THE Philadelphia Press of Monday, in an editorial under the heading "Gorman's Mistakes," says:

"Senator Gorman has sunk to be a leader who cannot lead. He had the opportunity of rising to be a statesman who could see a country's claims and frame a party policy, but he was not equal to it. Instead of that, he thought only of personal advantage and partisan interest and he misjudged both. The result is his disappointment, defeat and humiliation. He has been trying to induce his party associates to unite against the Panama treaty, but he has been unable either to effect such an arrangement or to secure the adoption of a rule which would control an unwilling majority. Mr Gorman has had a series of mishaps. His ascendency in his own State seems to have been seriously impaired by his inability thus far to control the election of a Senator, and by a successful resistance to his dictation. It may be that he will yet be able to rescue himself from this plight, but the defeat of his plan up to this point has done much to shatter his prestige. In the Senate the failure of his leadership has been conspicuous. He has long had the credit of being an astute manager who was keen in discerning the public temper and adroit in handling men, and his recent mistakes both of policy and management are the more striking. He has completely misjudged what was a prudent party position and what could be done with his own associates. Six months ago Mr. Gorman enjoyed a prestige which gave him a leading place among the aspirants to the presidential nomination of his party. But his recent blunders have done so much to forfeit it that it is doubtful if he can any longer be regarded as an eligible candidate."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25, 1904.

It seems probable that the Democratic candidate for the presidency next year will run a good second.

* * *

It is not understood that Mr. Bryan made any comparison while in Europe of the price of wheat and silver.

* * *

Mr. Bryan got so many new ideas in Europe that Tom Johnson is going to start post haste and try to pick up a few himself, if there are any left.

* * *

If Spain is a good "promoter" she will have a $60,000,000 navy. She has all the plans approved and all she needs now is to go out and get the money.

* * *

David Kaphokoak imokeweonah has just been appointed postmaster in Hawaii. He is called this for short and when signing telegrams. His full native name is used only on state occasions.

* * *

The Commoner says that the Democratic convention must reaffirm the silver platform of the last two conventions. We have forgotten just what this issue was, but presume it may have been one of those "ornamental" planks which are usually inserted in political platforms. Or perhaps the Commoner will explain to us just what this was been silver issue is.

* * *

The Memphis Commercial Appeal complains that the present Republican expenditures are pretty nearly double those of the last Cleveland administration. We have not looked back into the statistics of the niggardly expenditures of that period but every one must admit that our present prosperity and unparalleled industry, as compared with the horrible industrial situation in 1894, 1895 and 1896 are an ample answer to any criticisms which may be made of the present expenses of the Government.

* * *

The trusts, in their arrogance and plain endeavor to control some presidential candidate, have made the little mistake of figuring upon Mr. Bryan as a dead one, and of thinking that they could put an enormous campaign fund into the Democratic camp without necessitating any particular Democratic scrutiny. The fact is that Mr. Bryan will fight the big trusts as hard whether they are putting up their money for an eastern gold Democrat or for anybody else. Mr. Bryan's influence for making vast mischief in his own party has by no means departed, and with Mr. Hearst as a standard bearer, with a fair sized campaign fund of his own at command, whether he gets any contributions or not, and five or six enormous papers, to go before the country with, besides a host of labor organs which he has brought to his support, there is likelihood of the formation of a wide crack in the once compact and powerful Democratic party.

* * *

The National Board of Trade which met in Washington last week passed resolutions favoring the Panama Canal, liberal appropriations for the improvement of our water ways and harbors, reform in the consular service and repeal of the land laws. The Board declared that our consular service is far below the average of other great powers because of our political system of appointment. The Board took up the question of the public land problem and the settlement of millions of people upon the western lands as one of vital importance to all the commercial interests of the country. Internal commerce thrives with population. The Desert Land Law, the commutation clause of the Homestead Law and the Timber and Stone Law were denounced as instruments of fraud and theft of the greatest resource of the country and their repeal was demanded of Congress.

Reports to the contrary notwithstanding, there is opposition in Wall Street and bitter opposition to Roosevelt. It is talked openly. A prominent Washington business man, just returned from New York, relates a conversation among a group of bankers and brokers. They expressed their antagonism to Roosevelt, admitting, perforce, that he is honest. Well, gentlemen, who is your candidate, said the Washington man, is it Hanna? Not much, said one. To my mind Hanna is just as bad as Roosevelt and makes all sorts of trouble. Look at his fooling with labor, in an attempt to adjust the coal troubles. Roosevelt made a play to labor at the same time, but he showed in his Printing Office move that he was not going to be ridden down over what he believed right. Well, how about Gorman? Oh, Gorman can not make the run. Who then, Cleveland? Yes, quickly responded a man whose name is well known throughout Wall Street, give us four years of Cleveland and we will not trouble you. Gentlemen, name another one. But this request is still unanswered. The amount of it is, said a member of one of the largest New York banking firms, we would like to see Roosevelt defeated, and we will spend any amount of money to kill his nomination or to prevent his election, but just the same, he is going to be nominated and going to be elected. All of which goes to show that while there is opposition, it is unorganized and has little hope of attaining its desires.

—J. H. Bishop, a well known Cheswold (Del.) man, will have a birthday this year. This is an ordinary event in the lives of most people, but with Mr. Bishop it is entirely different, being the first birthday coming to him for eight years. He was born on February 29, and has, therefore, been without a birthday anniversary for eight years. He and his friends are arranging to make the event unusually interesting because of its importance.
