THURSDAY MORNING, FEB. 25, 1904.

MANY strange freaks performed by the fire in Baltimore have been reported, but none more curious than that reported by the cashier of the Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore who visited the ruins after the fire. He said: "Not only was everything safe and uninjured, but on Monday there was a lump of ice in the cooler behind the main vault and the clock on top of the vault was running as if nothing had happened."

THE granting of liquor licenses in some parts of Pennsylvania, at least, is studiously looked after and many restrictions placed upon the seller. At Carlisle a few days ago Judge Biddle made the following stipulations to those who secured licenses: "Retailers of liquor must close their places at 10:30 o'clock; bottlers and wholesalers at 9. No game of chance, free lunch, music or other means of attracting customers shall be allowed in or about a room where intoxicants are sold."

JAPAN, the latest country to enter the circle of world powers, has the distinction of being ruled by an Emperor who surpasses all other sovereigns in the length of his pedigree, according to the London Chronicle. He is the 122d member in direct unbroken descent of his family who has sat on the throne of Japan. The founder of his house was, in Japanese legend, a goddess of the sun, and contemporary with Nebuchadnezzar, 665 years before the Christian Era. On the other hand, the Romanoffs have been Royal only since 1601, when they succeeded to the sovereignty of the then extinct house of Rurik. As for other European rulers, King Edward can go back to Cedric, 495 A. D, the Hapsburgs to 952 A. D., and the Hohenzollerns to the eighth century but as kings only to 1701.

NO TRUCE IN MARYLAND.

A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Record of Monday from Baltimore says:

Governor Warfield has made several of his important appointments and laid others over owing to the pressure upon his time, due to the great fire. It has been learned that the new Governor has agreed to appoint a number of former Governor Smith's friends on the Eastern Shore.

"Free" Rasin, chief of the Baltimore city organization, will be given recognition, but he has been notified that he must recommend men for appointment who are thoroughly qualified and are of high reputation. Several 'Rasin' men who filled the office of Police Magistrates and other important positions under the Smith administration have already been told flatly by Governor Warfield that they will not be reappointed.

"Repeated efforts to secure an expression from Senator Gorman upon the effect of the election of Isidor Rayner, as United States Senator to succeed Louis E. McComas, have been futile. When Rayner enters the Senate on March 4, 1905, he will go arm in arm with Gorman to the desk of the president to take the oath of office, but they will never be on confidential terms. On all matters appertaining to Maryland they will work in harmony. They will not disagree openly.

"In Mr. Rayner, Senator Gorman does not believe he has a dangerous antagonist—not as formidable as the late Robert M. McLane, whose appointment as Minister to France he secured in 1885, and he believed him to be a less dangerous rival in Paris than in the Executive Mansion at Annapolis.

"It is not Mr. Rayner's personal triumph which has cast gloom in the camp of the organized leaders That gloom is traceable to the success of the influences behind Mr. Rayner; to the encouragement which is given their opponents to wage war in the future; to the fear that the important factors behind Rayner will continue their warfare against Senator Gorman, against themselves and against their organization, and, above all, they are despondent because they have lost confidence in Rasin and they fear that he will make things uncomfortable for them in this city, where he has a powerful and well-disciplined organization behind him.

"It is too early to say that there will be a new deal in Maryland politics, for not until 1907 will there be another State election at which a Governor is to be chosen and a Legislature which will elect a United States Senator. Many things must occur before that election which will have an important bearing on the result.

"A truce may be patched up between Gorman and Rasin, for both realize that they are too old to make friends, or build up new organizations.

"There are men high in the organization, however, who will find it hard to reconcile themselves to their defeat. Among these are the former Governor Smith and his friends; Colonel Buchanan Schley, Colonel Spencer C. Jones, John E. George, Austin L. Crothers, Murray Vandiver, Frank G. Wrightson, of Talbot; J. F. C. Talbott, of Baltimore county; B. Frank Crouse, of Carroll; Jas. Bannon, of Anne Arundel; Senator Wilson, of Prince Georges; Senator Greenwell, of St. Marys, and Thomas A. Smith, of Caroline, all of whom, if not active supporters of Governor Smith, were at least arrayed against Mr. Rayner. Each of these leaders has a county at his back in State conventions.

"Each stood by his guns to the last, and each must face Rayner men at home, who have been active against the organization, and who now feel encouraged by the success of Rayner and by the influence behind him to wage their war against these county leaders with increased zeal."

PERFECT CONFIDENCE.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of the croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md, in speaking of her experience in the use of the remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Davis, Ridgely.

Baltimore's Plans to Rebuild.

In spite of the terrible conditions which prevail since the fire, many property owners are making rapid preparations for rebuilding and many improvements are contemplated.

The Citizens Emergency Committee has reported and recommended the widening of streets and other improvements, as follows:

Baltimore Street to be widened from the eastern to the western fire line not less than ten feet to the north side, the roadway to be not less than 62 feet wide.

German street to be widened from Liberty to Light street on the south side to about 80 feet.

Lombard street to be widened from Charles to South street on the south side to not less than 66 feet, roadway to be not less than 46 feet wide.

Lombard street to be widened from Gay street to Jones' Falls on the north side to about 66 feet, roadway to be not less than 46 feet.

Pratt street to be widened from Light street to Jones' Falls, except the block where the United Railways and Electric Company's power-house stands, on the south side to about 120 feet.

Hopkins Place to be extended north from German to Liberty street 70 feet wide and in such a manner as to make the westline straight.

Hopkins Place to be widened from German to Lombard street on the east side to about 70 feet.

Hanover street to be extended from Baltimore to Fayette street to the same width as the present street and in line with it.

Charles street to be widened from the north to the south fire lines on the west side to not less than 76 feet, the roadway to be not less than 52 feet.

St. Paul street to be widened from Lexington to Fayette street on the west side to about 100 feet, to admit of its being used as a plaza.

St. Paul street to be widened from Fayette to Baltimore street on the west side to about 66 feet.

Light street to be widened from Baltimore to Pratt street on west side to about 102 feet.

Calvert street to be widened from Baltimore to Fayette street on the east side to about 80 feet.

Commerce street to be widened from Exchange Place to Pratt street on the east side to 60 feet.

Property bounded by Baltimore street, Marsh Market Space, Lombard street and Jones' Falls to be acquired by the city for park purposes.

BETTER THAN GOLD.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down woman. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c Satisfaction guaranteed by R. J. Colston.

Charred Debris Carried Many Miles.

Monday morning, the second day of the Baltimore conflagration, charred embers and other charred debris were found on Kent Island, on the farm of Mr. Stephen L. Wright and on the farm where Mr. Mordecai Chilcutt resides, a part of the Hermitage, at Piney Point, the farm of Dr. J. I. Cornell. On Kent Island a charred one dollar bill was found, beside other embers. On the farm of Mr. Stephen L. Wright, on Reed's Creek, and adjoining the Hermitage, a piece of the Baltimore Sun was found, but not so badly but it could be read. On the Chilcutt farm were found numerous tags, evidently from clothing, as the price, size and house from which sold could be plainly read. Similar charred embers of paper and other like material were found on Piney Point farm. All these farms are situate on the east side of Chester river, in this county, and are from 30 to 35 miles distant from the city as the crow flies. These facts go to show what a northwesterly and westernly gale was blowing Sunday night during the progress of the fire.—Centreville Record.
