COURT ADJOURNS TUESDAY.

The court session was not completed last week and was continued on Monday with Judge Brown on the bench. Very few cases were tried, a removed case from Dorchester occupying the time of the court from Wednesday to Friday, when the Jopp case was taken up. In the case of Isaac H. Matthews, colored, charged with forging a due bill on W. R. Breeding, a verdict of guilty was rendered and the accused was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Leonard Buchanan, colored, indicted for stealing a pair of rubber boots from Jarman & Coursey, was convicted and sentenced to the House of Correction for six months.

The removed case was from Cambridge and grew out of the arrest of a number of oystermen for catching oysters on private grounds. The parties so charged were acquitted in the Dorchester court upon the fact that the certificate of the oyster lot had not been recorded. Through a misunderstanding on the part of the attorney, the record was not made, while the owner Harvey Conway, supposed that he had attended to it. Suit was afterwards brought by Thomas J. Vickers against Harvey H. Conway, for alleged malicious prosecution. The testimony was concluded on Thursday afternoon and the arguments were made Friday morning. Goldsborough & Fletcher, of Cambridge, and Dewcese, of Denton, appeared for the plaintiff; Pattison & Harrington, of Cambridge, and Lewis of Denton, represented the defendant. The case was taken from the jury by the court on a prayer offered by the defense, the plaintiff having failed to establish malice.

The case of the State against George L Jopp, indicted for assault with intent to kill Jerome Lister was immediately taken up and the following jury was selected: Walter M. Wright, Frank Seward, William A. Johnson, Daniel Singer, Hutchinson Trice, Alfred Clark, James H. Nichols, Peter T. Morris, William H. Deen, M. L. Sullivan, Dennis Nichols and Ernest G. Cooper. Mr. Goldsborough represented the State and Messrs. Dewcese and Towers appeared for Jopp. Jereme Lister was put on the stand and related the events which led up to the fight. Admitted that he had not been invited but paid fifty cents for the privilege of dancing; hac taken two drinks from a bottle which he had taken with him. Did not provoke a quarrel with any one and only used a chair to defend himself.

Jopp's testimony was to the effect that he used his knife in self-defense while being beaten over the head with chairs. He too had been drinking.

More than 100 witnesses were summoned and the characters of both men was testified to by numerous witnesses. Both were quiet and peaceable when sober, but when drunk were rather quarrelsome. The attorneys finished with the witnesses about 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon and Mr. Goldsborough immediately began his argument to the jury. The court room was crowded with spectators, Tuesday being a public day, and many persons embraced the opportunity to spend an hour or two in court.

The arguments, while brief, were pronounced as able and convincing and all three of the young attorneys acquitted themselves with much credit. The jury retired to their room and returned in a few minutes with a verdict of not guilty. This ended the business of the term and court immediately adjourned.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condidition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c guaranteed at R. J Colstons drug store.

Fruit Growers Sanguine.

John C. Bosley, General Freight and Passenger Agent for the Queen Anne's Railroad Company, returned several days ago from an inspection trip through Maryland and Delaware fruit and trucking sections. Mr. Bosley said: "Of course, no crop is absolutely safe from disaster until the money is banked, but up to this time, the conditions along our roads are favorable to a fine fruit crop. The buds of all fruits have barely begun to swell, and growers are confident that, unless very unusual weather conditions prevail during April, these will be safe from frost. All fruit trees are well set with fruit and the growers are sanguine."

The Post Office Appropriation bill was reported to the Senate quite recently with about $1,000,000 increase over what it was when it passed the House. The most important change made in the bill as it now stands is an item fixing the pay of rural free delivery carriers at $720 a year. The carriers are permitted to carry merchandise for hire and receive subscriptions for and deliver newspapers and periodicals so long as this occupation does not interfere with the proper discharge of their duties. It is stipulated, however, that the carriers shall not discriminate against any newspaper.

Much speculation is being indulged in by members of Wilmington Conference as to what effect the transfer of Rev. Wilbur F. Corkran from the Wilmington Conference to the Philadelphia Conference will have on his standing as a delegate from Wilmington Conference to the General Conference, which meets in California shortly. The question arises, "Can he, as a member of the Philadelphia Conference, which has already elected its quota of delegates, continue to represent the Wilmington Conference? The general impression among the members of the Wilmington Conference is that his alternate, Rev. Mr. Wyatt of Middletown, will have the seat.

Gave Away Fortune in Vain.

When the will of the late Alexander Jackson, of Camden, was read it was found that, though he had given away more than $40,000 during the last few years of his life in order that his wealth should not be tied up in the courts after his death, the estate will probably have to be settled by the courts after all, as the legacy to his widow is less than she could claim under her dower rights. Jackson died at the age of 77, and his widow is 87 years old. Despite the fact that he gave large sums of money to his friends and set several young men up in business, he left a large fortune, which is to be divided among his 16 nephews and neices, each to receive between $5,000 and $10,000. To his widow he left his home and a small annuity. It is expected that she will demand one-third of the estate.
