Why Eloise Was Glad.

Eloise is a little Canadian girl who not long ago made her first appearance at Sunday school. When she returned home she said nothing of her visit, so she was asked what she had learned.

Well, said Eloise, they caught a man—I forget his name—and hung Him, and I am glad they did,too.

Why, Eloise! How shocking!

I don't care, I am, persisted Eloise; 'cause if they hadn't not a sinner would be saved.

Seek Pacific's Lost Island.

On her return trip from Honolulu the cruiser will hunt for the "Lost Island of the Pacific". This island is supposed to be somewhere between Honolulu and California Bay. It appears on the old Spanish maps, but on the American it is put down as doubtful. It has long been a theory that the American sloop of war Lavant, which dissappeared in 1859, on its way from Honolulu to Panama, and was never heard of again, was wrecked off this island. American men-of-war have searched for the islad before, but no trace of it has been found, Its supposed location is in an unfrequented part of the Pacific, off the line of travel.

WEEKS NEWS CONDENSED

HAPPENINGS HERE AND THERE.

Numerous Items That will Interest You No Doubt

June 9, 16, 23 and 30 are the next dates for great coach excursions to St. Louis via Pennsylvania Railroad, on account of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The rates for these excursions have been fixed at such a low figure that they afford those of limited means an opportunity to see the World's Fair at an exceptionally small cost. The unusual success attending the first Pennsylvania Railroad excursion indicates that these will be very popular.

Special trains of standard Pennsylvania Railroad coaches of the most modern pattern will be run on the above-mentioned dates from New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Altoona, and Pittsburg, directly thro' to St. Louis, with ample stops for meals at convenient hours. Each train will be in charge of a Tourist Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The rates will be the same as for the first excursion, May 10, $20 from New York, $18.50 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other stations.

Specific information regarding time of special train and connections, and rates from principal stations east of Pittsburg, will be announced shortly.

What He Was Doing.

Joseph Jefferson fishing stories are a regular feature of the season's changes. As soon as the nipping airs of winter give way to the balm of spring time the Jefferson anecdotes begin to sprout.

Mr. Jefferson came unexpectedly upon a Hibernian disciple of the great Sir Isaac, who was industriously casting his lines into the limpid waters of his private lake.

"See here!" said the comedian; "what do you mean by catching my fish?"

"Begorra," replied the fisherman, slowly taking his pipe from his mouth, "Oi'm not fishin". Oi'm t'achin these wurrums how to swim!"

Peace in the White House Again.

The calico pony, the mastiff and the Angora goat were sent ahead to Oyster Bay a few days ago.
