Thomas C. Howard and Brice Howard, Surv. J. partners of Joseph Howard against Charles Alexander Warfield Executor of Azel Warfield

General Court October Term 1790 —

Agreeably to the Order of the Court we the Subscribers having taken into consideration the Settlement of the Accounts of the said Thomas C. Howard and Brice Howard Surviving partners of Joseph Howard, and Charles Alexander Warfield Administrator of Azel Warfield are of Opinion that altho the Accounts exhibited against Joseph Howard deceased Thomas C. Howard and Rachel Howard appear to be just cannot be deducted from the claim of Thomas C. Howard and Brice Howard Surviving partners of Joseph Howard, but have deducted from their claim the Accounts of Azel Warfield against Thomas C. Howard, Capt. Brice Howard and Mr. Rachel Howard Mess. Howard and Company & Capt. Brice Howard and find that the said Charles Alexander Warfield Administrator of Azel Warfield is indebted to the said Thomas C. Howard and Brice Howard eighty nine pounds eight shillings and five pence half penny principal and the sum of fifty three pounds fourteen shillings for the Interest thereon, And we do therefore Award that the said Charles Alexander Warfield Administrator of Azel Warfield pay unto the said Thomas C Howard and Brice Howard Surviving partners of Joseph Howard, the sum of One hundred and forty three pounds two shillings and five pence half penny Current Money and Costs of Suit, In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and Seals this eleventh day of May 1792 —

Whereas Charles Alexander Warfield as Administrator of Azel Warfield has an Account against the Estate of Joseph Howard deceased for the sum of £74 . 14 . 5 to bear Interest from 18. January 1778. which account I have reason to believe is just, and whereas I have a claim against Brice Howard as Surviving partner of Brice, Thomas & Joseph Howard for Monies due to the said Joseph Howards estate for and on Account of the said Copartnership to recover which Money a Suit is now depending in the High Court of Chancery — This Agreement Witnesseth that it is agreed by and between the said Charles Alexander Warfield and Me the Subscriber that the said Account due from the Estate of Joseph
