HAPPENINGS HERE AND THERE.

Numerous Items That will Interest You No Doubt

Two English walnut trees in the yard of James A. Latchum of Milford, are proving a profitable source of revenue to the owner. It is estimated that the trees will yield four or five bushels of nuts this season, and as these sell for about $5.60 per bushel of 56 pounds, the crop is a paying one. The trees which were planted twenty years ago by N. J. Pierson, are very large, measuring fifteen inches across the butt, and furnish an excellent shade.

STARTLING EVIDENCE.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland Bentorville, Va. serves as a good example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking King' sNew Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. J. Colston. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.00.

Big Mormon Colony in Mexico.

The Mormon Church will be actively engaged the next few months in securing land in various portions of Mexico for colonization. The assertion is made that it has been decided recently to purchase 500,000 acres in Sonora or Chihuahua, to be used as an extension of the colonies of Colonia, Dublan and Diaz. The details are about complete, it is said, and within a few weeks the deeds will be ready for transfer.

FOR A HUNDRED YEARS.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold by A. L. Duffey, Hillsboro, Md.

How to Observe Sunday.

In speaking on "Old and New Views of Sunday Observance," in the Unitarian Church Wilmington, the Rev. A. T. Bowser mantained that in the rational observace of the American Sabbath there is but one rule: So to use the day as to get the most good out of it, not only for one's self alone, but for society at large—seeking to make Sunday in a high and true sense, the brightest, most enjoyable and most profitable day of the week for the whole community.

SUED BY HIS DOCTOR.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of colera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicane. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe that it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by R. J. Colston, Denton; Davis, Druggist, Ridgely, Md.

Will Not Marry Divorced Persons.

Ministers of all denominations accepted the invitation of Bishop Coleman last week and attended the conference on "Marriage and Divorce" at Bishopstead in Wilmington, and adopted resolutions against marrying a divorced man or divorced woman while the divorced husband or wife be living except when the divorce was specially granted for adultery—and then only the innocent party in any such case. With this reservation however some of us will not marry a divorced person under any circumstances whatsoever while the other party to the divorce be living except for the reason believed by many to be contained in the new testament.
