At which said second tuesday of november being the fourteenth day of the same month Seventeen hundred and ninety Seven, comes into the high Court of Appeals as well the aforesaid William Worthington by John Thomson Mason and Luther Martin his attornies as the aforesaid State of Maryland use of Thos. O. Williams & others by William Cooke their attorney; But because the Court are not yet advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid, before the Judges of our high Court of Appeals here until the second tuesday of June next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises because the Court now here thereof not yet &c. At which said second tuesday of June being the twelfth day of the same month seventeen hundred and ninety eight comes again here into our high Court of Appeals the said parties Appellant and Appellee by their attornies aforesaid and the said Appellant by his Attorney saith that in the record and process aforesaid likewise in the rendering of Judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this to wit that by the record and proceedings aforesaid it does appear that the Judgment aforesaid rendered was given for the aforesaid Appellee against the aforesaid Appellant, whereas by the Law of the land that Judgment ought to have been given for the said Appellant against the said Appellee; therefore in that it is manifestly erred; And the said Appellee aforesaid says that there is no error in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid and prays likewise that the court here may proceed to the examination as well of the record and proceedings aforesaid as of the matter aforesaid by the said Appellant above for error assigned; day thereon is given to the parties aforesaid until the second tuesday of November next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises because the Court now here thereof are not yet &c. and now here at this day to wit the second tuesday of November being the thirteenth day of the same month Seventeen hundred and ninety eight, Comes again into the high Court of Appeals here as well the aforesaid Appellant by his attorneys aforesaid as the said Appellee by their attorney aforesaid; whereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid and the Judgment rendered in form aforesaid as the matters aforesaid by the said Appellant above for errors assigned being seen heard and fully understood by the Court and mature deliberation thereon had. Whereupon for that it appears to the Court here that there is no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid or in giving the Judgment aforesaid therefore it is considered by the Court here that the Judgment aforesaid rendered in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed. And it is further considered by the Court here that the said Appellee recover against said Appellant their damages costs and charges aforesaid so as aforesaid rendered in the aforesaid General Court as also the quantity of one thousand three hundred and eighteen pounds of Tobacco adjudged to them on their appeal according to the form of the Statute in such cases made and provided for their costs and charges which they hath sustained by occasion of the delay of the execution of the Judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting the said writ of error by the said William Worthington, and that they the said State of Maryland use of Thomas O. Williams & others have thereof their Execution &c.

Test Burton Wheltcroft Clk. Co. of Appeals

Jeremiah Crabb
vs.
State of Mary. use of Thos. O. Williams & Ors

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the first day of august in the year of our Lord Seventeen hundred and ninety Seven the aforesaid Jeremiah Crabb by John Thomson Mason and Luther Martin his attornies sued out of the State of Maryland's High Court of Chancery the writ of the said State for error directed to the Honorable the Judges of the General Court in the words following to wit

Maryland ss. The State of Maryland To the Honorable the Judges of the General Court. Greeting because in the record and process, and also in the rendering of Judgment, on a certain bought by the State of Maryland against Jeremiah Crabb for the Sum of five thousand pounds current money and eight hundred and eighty three pounds of Tobacco costs of Suit, to be released on payment of five hundred and eighteen pounds one shilling and eight pence current money with Interest from the first day of february Seventeen hundred and eighty seven till paid, costs of Suit at a General Court held before you our said Judges at Annapolis at May Term last, manifest error as it is said has happened to the great damage of the said Jeremiah Crabb as of his complaint we have received and we being willing that the errors, if any there be should be duly corrected and full and speedy Justice done to the said Jeremiah Crabb, in this behalf command you that if Judgment be thereof rendered, that then the record and process aforesaid with all things thereunto relating under your Seals distinctly and openly you send to this Writ, so that the same may be had before the Judges of our High Court of Appeals at Annapolis the second tuesday of november next, that the record and process aforesaid being inspected unto we may further do therein for correcting that error which of right and according to the Laws and customs of this State may be done. Witness the Honorable Alexander Contee Hanson Chancellor this first day of August in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety seven

The Great Seal in Wax appendt

Samuel Harvey Howard Reg. Cur. Can.

At which mentioned second tuesday of November being the fourteenth day of the same month Seventeen hundred and ninety Seven, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ the Honorable the Judges of the General court to whom the said Writ of error was made and directed in pursuance thereof and according to the form and effect of the act of Assembly in such cases made and provided make return to the Judges of our Court here of the same writ with the following record to wit

The State of Maryland ss. At a General Court for the Western Shore of the said State begun and held for the City of Annapolis, on the second tuesday of May being the ninth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand Seven hundred and ninety seven. And in the Independence of the United States of America