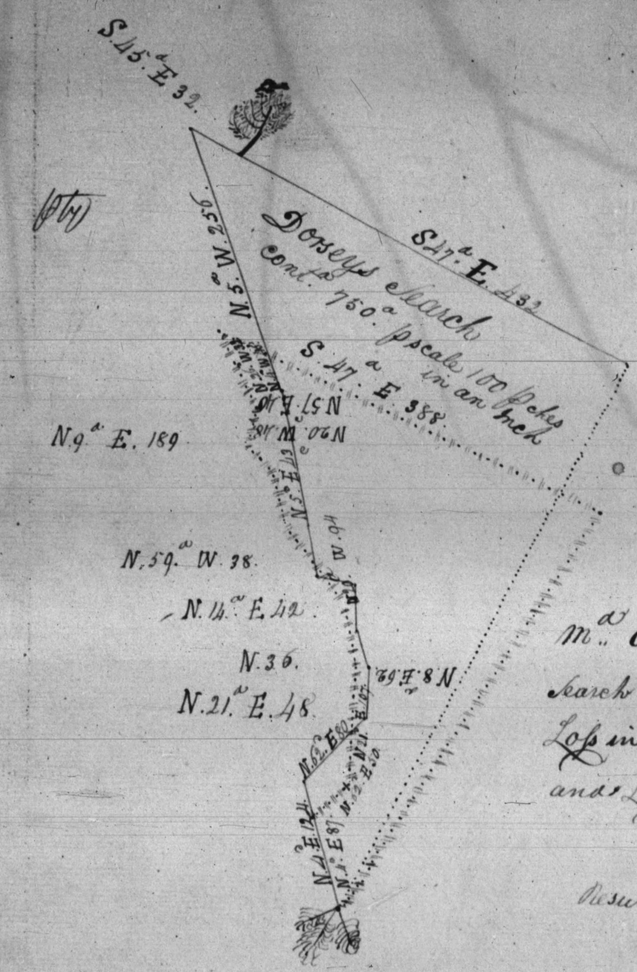
contained and to add what vacant land thereunto contiguous as appears &c. — — —

These are therefore to certify that I John Dorsey deputy Surveyr. under Thomas Addison esqr. Surveyr. Genl. of the western shore of this province have carefully resurveyd for and in the name of him the sayd John Dorsey Junr. the aforesaid tract or parcell of land called Dorsey Search including the surplusage and added the vacant land thereunto contiguous lying in Baltimore county and on Elk ridge and on the east side of Patuxent river. begining at three bounded white oaks (being the third boundary of the land called Long Reach) standing near the aforesaid river side, sayd trees being the originall begining trees of the sayd Dorsey's Search: and runing thence up and with the sayd river N 4°. E 124. pches. thence N. 62°. E. 80 pches thence N 21°. E 48 pches. thence N 36 pches. thence N. 14°. E 42 pches. thence N 59°. W 38 pches to a parcell of land called Dryer's Inheritance thence with sayd land N 9°. E 185 pches thence N 5°. W 256 pches, thence S 45°. E 32 pches to a originall bounded White Oak of the aforesaid Dorseys Search thence S 47°. E 432 pches. to ye. aforesaid land called Long Reach thence with the sayd land to ye. aforesayd three bounded white oaks containing and now layd out for seven hundred and fifty acres of land more a less to be holden of the mann. of Baltemore. —

Resurveyed March 27th. 1723.

Test. John Dorsey Deptr. Surveyr.



Endorsed on the back

P. B. Key
R. Ridgely } G

Mr. Originall survey Dorseys search contained &c.	acres 479
Lots in Dryers Inheritance and Long Reach	102
remains	377
Resurvey makes	750

Distinguish { The original by cutt lines / The Resurvey by plain lines }

And the plat, certificates and explanations in this case and likewise produced the Surveyor who made out the platts in this cause, who gave testimony to the Jury that the old fields mentioned in the deposition of James Kirby were all the old fields that are described as included in the yellow lines marked on the platt to designate old fields; And thereupon the Defendant moved the Court to direct the Jury that according to the true grammatical construction and evident meaning of the expressions used in the patent of Dorseys Search, the original the said tract from its beginning at figures 90 to its second boundary at figures 91. ought to bind on the said line