REPUBICAN NOMINEES.

For President.
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
OF NEW YORK.

For Vice-President,
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS,
OF INDIANA.

For 59th Congress:
HON. WILLIAM H. JACKSON,
OF WICOMICO COUNTY.
Election—Tuesday, November 8.

THE nomination of former State Senator and Labor Statistician Thomas A. Smith, was not much of a surprise here as it was known that Mr. Smith would accept if his friends succeeded in getting the nomination for him, and with the convention the question was not "who shall we nominate," but, "who will accept the nomination?" As in the first convention, former Governor John Walter Smith was in complete control, and favored his friend from Caroline, while ex-Governor Jackson favored J. Frank Harper, of Queen Annes county. Gen Jos. B. Seth, of Talbot, was shelved in about the same manner that Mr. Smith was at the former convention, but of course all those little things will be forgiven and forgotten in a few weeks. Mr. Smith is a hustling business man and ambitious politician, and in his efforts to reach his present position of party leader in his county has not failed to trample upon the political ambitions of more than one Democrat. His attitude in the last campaign is well remembered and if Democrats ever do tell the truth and stick to it, he will not get all the votes of his party at home. The latest Democratic scheme reported, is to secure sufficient signature to a petition to get the name of William H. Jackson, of Talbot county, upon the ticket and thus confuse the supporters of the Republican nominee.

MR. SUMMERFIELD BALDWIN, head of the well known manufacturing firm of Woodward, Baldwin & Co., returned a few days ago from a six weeks' trip aboard. Asked his views on the subject of the political situation in this country he said: "I look for the election of Roosevelt. Europe is taking its usual interest in our national election. The impression made abroad by John Hay as Secretary of State has established a high estimate for the present administration. They know Hay well in Europe and speak in admiring terms of his courage, breadth of view and high order of skill in representing the United States in diplomatic problems. The European view does not go deeply into American politics, but the question is rather general as to why make a change."

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK, of the Republican Congressional Committee, speaking of the Vermont election, said: "Hurrah for the farmer. He's the fellow that made that big vote. I am delighted to see the vote in Vermont, because it shows that the farmer is willing to vote his approval of existing conditions. There is no doubt in my mind that the farmers everywhere are going to do just as the farmers in Vermont have done."

[illegible]fore Roosevelt.

[illegible]e people wanted coal, he got coal; therefore Roosevelt.

[illegible]n the people wanted an isthmian canal, he got them the Panama canal; therefore Roosevelt.

When Great Britain and Germany endeavored to ignore the Monroe Doctrine, he called them down; therefore Roosevelt.

When men were wanted for the Spanish war, he organized the rough riders; therefore Roosevelt.

When the time came to fulfill William McKinley's promises to aid Cuba, he carried the Cuban reciprocity bill; therefore Roosevelt.

When matters in the postal department needed investigation, he forced the investigation; therefore Roosevelt.

When the time came to enforce John Sherman's anti-trust law, he enforced it therefore Roosevelt.

When it is necessary to speak "right out in meeting" he does so; therefore Roosevelt.

When there is work to be done on behalf of the whole American people, he does it; therefore Roosevelt.

When relations with Spain were [illegible]d, he put Dewey [illegible]is feet where it might be wanted; therefore Roosevelt.

When a time came to assume William McKinley's burden of responsibility, and to carry out his policy, he did both; therefore Roosevelt.

When the necessity arose to recognize the rights of our colored fellow citizens, he, recognized them; therefore Roosevelt.

When the people of New York City sent him to Albany, as assemblyman, to protect their interests, he protected them; therefore Roosevelt.

When the people of the State of New York called him to the Governor's chair, he made one of the best Governors the State ever had; therefore Roosevelt.

When his party nominated him for the Presidency on the platform they had adopted, he did not dodge, or seek to dodge any of its planks; therefore Roosevelt.

When he accepted the nomination he accepted without reserve as to any of his party's issues; therefore Roosevelt.

When his party nominated him to stand on a platform of gold, he did not wobble on one of silver, with gold trimmings of his own, as does his opponent; therefore Roosevelt.

WHY NOT?

It would be well if Judge Parker would take up some of the issues of the day and make plain his views upon the money question, the tariff question, the Philippines and upon many of the lesser issues in which the voters of the country are interested. It would be well if the literature of the Democratic National Committee gave some attention to these great questions of the day instead of cheap tirades and meaningless denouncements. We have awaited eagerly the letter of acceptance of the Democratic candidate for President to see if he would not before the campaign is over have a fuller realization of what high statesmanship may mean and upon what basis the American voter intends to to make his decesion when voting for the Chief Magistrate of his country. The Republican Comittee and the Republican speakers and editors of the country have no attack whatever to make upon the candidates of the Democratic party; they prefer to discuss the issues of the day; to point to the record of Republican legislation; to call attention to the promises and pledges fulfilled, and above all to emphasize the great prosperity of the people during the last seven years under Republican administration and a protective tariff. These are the questions that should be discussed and upon the result of this discussion and upon the merits of the argument used, the people should decide whether we shall elect in November Judge Parker or Theodore Roosevelt.

"THE laborer is worthy of his hire." What did the Democrats pay for party work in Vermont?

DEMOCRATIC chances might be brighter if the wage-earners of the nation did not have such good memories.

IN supporting Parker in the East and the Populist ticket at home Mr. Bryan is attempting that always difficult feat of riding two horses going in different directions at the same time.

Smith For Congress.

According to J. Y. Brattan in the Baltimore American, the Democratic convention at Ocean City that nominated Thomas A. Smith, of Caroline county, for Congress to take the place on the ticket of ex-Governor E. E. Jackson, was a very tame affair. In his report Mr. Brattan states that ex-Governor John Walter Smith was in complete control of the convention. The ex-Governor was not present in person, but his orders were issued through Mr. John P. Moore and were carried out by Mr. Moore and John E. George, of Queen Anne. The convention adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

It was a disappointed crowd that came from Ocean City Wednesday afternoon. The gathering was without enthusiam and as dull as ditch water. Most of the delegates went to the beach Tuesday night but none of the leading lights in the party were there and the darkness to those on deck was intense indeed. They tried to get up a sort of a combination for General Seth Tuesday night, Wicomico, Somerset, Dorchester and Talbot agreeing to vote for his nomination. They had but 17 votes, however, and while Kent and Cecil talked favorably they had not gotten "the word." When the "word" arrived, a little later in the evening, in the custody of Mr. John P. Moore, Cecil and Kent fell over themselves getting in behind the Smiths.

The instructions were given the Smith delegates at a sort [illegible] caucus, held, according to Mr. Brattan's account of it, about 2 o'clock in the morning. Neither Wicomico Somerset nor Dorchester was asked to enter this caucus, the matter being fixed up irrespective of them or their wishes.

Right Rev. John J. Monaghan, Catholic Bishop of Wilmington and of the Diocese of the Eastern Shore, who is conducting a retreat of Catholic clergy of his diocese at Ocean City, opened the convention with prayer. Secretary George W. Wilson read the roll-call.

Harvey L. Cooper, of Caroline, nominated Thomas A. Smith for Congress. W. D. Smith, of Queen Anne's, seconded the nomination. George W. Wilson, of Talbot, made a speech, in which he set forth the reasons why his county did not press the nomination of General Seth. He said that the Talbot delegation had come to the convention prepared to press the claim of General Seth, but when a majority of the delegates had decreed that Mr. Smith was a stronger candidate Talbot was prepared to accept the result. He said that General Seth did not seek the nomination, but was willing to accept it if tendered unanimously. After H. L. D. Stanford, of Somerset, had made a speech glorifying the Democracy of his country, and after George Biddle, of Kent, had seconded Mr. Smith's nomination, a voice in the audience said "Out at first." As there was no other candidates, Mr. Smith's nomination was declared to be unanimous.

"BUT"

"But" is the word of the waverer—the one who thinks there may be finer fruit across the hedge, or a little farther along the way, and passes by the best—even the good—to where the inferior is, after which there is nothing.

"But"—used as it generally is—keeps out new ways of doing things, stifles ambition, brings narrowness of mind and petty methods of living,

Use the word this way, and see how it will help you—

But there is no store so good as Hochschild, Kohn & Co's, and I will be unwise to go anywhere else.

But I can't buy such pretty, fashionable things at any other store as I can get at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s. The other stores don't have them.

But I have never met such willing, courteous salespeople as I find at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s. It is a real pleasure to shop there.

But I want to save money, and I can do it by going to Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s.

Dear Sir—My wife is well pleased with the Quick Meal Range. We think it is all and really more than you claimed it to be. We are using the short pipe reduced to six inches, and the range draws finely; will burn green wood without any trouble. We would not exchange it for a Home Comfort.

Sir—Have given the Quick Meal Range bought of you a thorough trial, and am well satisfied with it. Being quick to heat it saves much in fuel, and yet bakes evenly at bottom and top. I could not ask a better cooking stove.

Mr. T. Harvey:
Dear Sir—In reply to yours of 5th will say that the Quick Meal Range purchased of you is all you said it was. In regard to heating and saving of fuel we have no fault to find with it.

MR. HARVEY:
Dear Sir:—I want to say a few words in behalf of the Quick Meal Steel Range which I purchased of you a few weeks ago. It is a No. 1. baker, a quick heater, and draws nicely. It is even a nice stove to sit by. It will when done cooking in the oven, heat the room as well as a set stove. It burns wet, green wood better than any stove I ever saw. In fact, it gives perfect satisfaction in every respect. I find it all you told us it was. I can hardly tell you how well pleased we are with it. If I knew I could not get another, no price anywhere in reason, could buy this one.
Yours respectfully,
(MRS.) JAS. H. OUTTEN.

Mr. T. Harvey:

March 7, 1903
Mr. T. Harvey:
The Quick Meal Range I bought of you some time ago gives entire satisfaction. It is a good burner and a splendid baker. It is a "quick meal range" indeed. I don't see how a range could work better. Your stove is all you claim it to be and it is indeed a wood saver. I don't see how any stove could give better satisfaction.
