It is ordered by the Court here that the said Richard Chew answer to the scire facias aforesaid of the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College in the plea aforesaid; or Judgment by the Court here will be given and entered against him in default hereof; and the said Richard Chew by his attorney aforesaid defends the force and injury when and so forth: and prays leave of the Court here to imparle until the second tuesday of October next; and then to answer to the Scire facias aforesaid of the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College in the plea aforesaid: and to him it is granted, the same day is given to the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College also.

At which said second tuesday of October, being the tenth day of the same month in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, come again into the General court here, as well the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College by its attorney aforesaid, as the said Richard Chew by his attorney aforesaid; and the said Richard Chew by his attorney aforesaid (as before) defends the force and injury when and so forth, and saith, that the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College ought not to have its execution against him for the damages and several costs and charges aforesaid, because he saith, that there is not any such record of the recovery of the damages and several costs and charges aforesaid, as by the writ aforesaid is above supposed; and this he is ready to verify: Wherefore he prays Judgment if the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College ought to have execution against him for the damages and several costs and charges aforesaid and so forth. — And the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College saith, that by any thing by the said Richard Chew above in pleading alleged, it ought not to be precluded from having its execution against him for the damages and several costs and charges aforesaid because the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College saith, that there is such record of the recovery aforesaid, as by the said writ is above supposed: — And the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College prays that the said record may be seen and inspected; and because the Court here are not yet advised to give their Judgment thereon, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid until the second tuesday of may next, to hear their Judgment on that issue, because the Court here thereof not yet and so forth.

And now at this day towit, the said second tuesday of may being the eighth day of the same month in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, came again into the General Court here as well the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College by its attorney aforesaid as the said Richard Chew by his attorney aforesaid; Thereupon the said Richard Chew by his attorney aforesaid relinquisheth the averment aforesaid (above by him pretended), and saith, that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College, so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that there is such record of the recovery aforesaid, nor but that the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College ought to have execution against him for the damages and several costs and charges aforesaids in the writ of Scire facias aforesaids specified and so forth; Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College have execution against the said Richard Chew for as well the damages and several costs and charges aforesaid in the writ of Scire facias aforesaid specified according to the recovery aforesaid, as also the quantity of eight hundred and fifty seven pounds tobacco, adjudged by the Court hereunto the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College on its assent for its costs and charges accrued by reason of the delay of the execution of the Judgment aforesaid, according to the Statute in such case made and provided; and that the said Visitors and Governors of Saint Johns College have thereof execution and so forth.

Memorandum, on the fourteenth day of may in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, Fiat for execution was rendered in this cause for the damages and several costs and charges in the writ of Scire facias aforesaid specified and costs of suit, to be released on the payment of thirty pounds current money with Interest from the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety, and costs of suit, and additional costs, stay execution till the first day of august next.
