aforesaid further informs your honor, that the said Defendant Seth Warfield being also seized in fee of a tract of land called Warfields, which lay adjoining to the resurvey called The Victory and being desirous of including the contiguous vacancy, on the sixteenth day of november in the year seventeen hundred & seventy obtained a warrant of resurvey thereon which after sundry renewments was executed on the fourth day of november seventeen hundred and seventy two in pursuance of a previous agreement entered into with the said Henry Ridgely on the fifteenth day of may seventeen hundred and seventy one wherein and whereby it was stipulated, and mutually agreed that the said Henry Ridgely, when correcting and amending his said certificate of The Victory, should leave out a parcel of vacant land adjoining the tract of land called Warfields for him the said Seth Warfield to include in his certificate of resurvey, and which was originally included in The Victory, provided and on this express condition, that a vacant space should be left open, between the said survey so to be made by the said Seth Warfield, and an older tract of land called Pleasant Meadows (which is delineated on the platts referred to in this cause and marked Exhibits N.º 2 & N.º 3) for the said Henry Ridgely to pass through, and include in his said survey of The Victory, the vacant land, comprehended within the lines of the survey called Equity and which was a junior survey. — And the said Attorney General by and at the relation aforesaid, further informs your honor that in pursuance of such agreement aforesaid and in consequence of the said Seth Warfields having withdrawn his caveat against the certificate of The Victory, the said Henry Ridgely did cause the said Basil Burgess the deputy surveyor to correct his said certificate of The Victory by reducing the quantity to two thousand five hundred and fifty nine acres; as by a new platt thereof made on the ninth day of October seventeen hundred and seventy one, and now remaining in the Land office reference being thereto had, will at large appear (and a copy of which said Platt marked Exhibit N.º 8 the said Attorney General refers to and prays the same may be taken as part of this his information and in correcting the said certificate of The Victory the said surveyor at the instance and by the direction of the said Henry Ridgely and conformably to the agreement with Seth Warfield aforesaid did leave out a slipe of vacant land adjoining the tract of land called Warfields, for the said Seth Warfield to include in his survey, but still retaining and including a vacant space between the older tract of land called Pleasant Meadows and the survey so to be made by the said Warfield, in order to connect the whole resurvey called The Victory into one entire tract, and not let the same be laid off in distinct or different parcels, and the said Seth Warfield did also direct the said surveyor Basil Burgess in his said survey in conformity to said agreement running the lines thereof, so as to bend on The Victory, and not to cut the same asunder, or to run his lines foul of the same; — and the said Attorney General refers to the certificate of resurvey made out for the said Seth Warfield with the surveyors explanation of the same now remaining in the Land office copy of which is herewith filed marked Exhibit N.º 4 and prays the same may be taken as part of this information.

And the said Attorney General at the relation aforesaid further informs your honor, that the said Joshua Fisher entered a caveat against patent issuing on the corrected certificate of The Victory on the eleventh day of day march seventeen hundred and seventy two; which caveat was never decided by the Judges of the Land office but dismissed, as the said Attorney General is informed by the said Joshua Fisher himself, after he was summoned to appear before the Judges of the Land office to support his said caveat. —

And the said Attorney General, by and at the relation aforesaid, further informs your honor that the said Major Henry Ridgely departed this life some time in the year seventeen hundred and ninety without having paid the composition money due or complying with the other requisites prescribed by law, to obtain a grant for the said tract of land called The Victory by reason whereof according to the established rules of the Land office the certificate of said resurvey & the land therein contained became liable to proclamation, and to be granted to the first discoverer, and on the eighth day of march seventeen hundred and ninety four a special warrant of proclamation issued to Henry Ridgely Junior to affect and secure the said tract of land called The Victory and which said warrant the said Henry Ridgely did assign and transfer to Thomas Snowden and Charles Alexander Warfield the other Defendants named in this cause, whom untie thereof did intend to have included as the said Attorney General is informed and verily believes, all the land comprehended within the lines of the resurvey made by William Fisher as aforesaid and called Equity, well knowing that the same had been previously surveyed and included within the resurvey called The Victory which the said Snowden and Warfield at that time held. — And the said Attorney General by and at the relation aforesaid, further informs your honor, that the said Thomas Snowden and Charles Alexander Warfield having neglected to comply with the terms of the said proclamation warrant by making and returning a certificate of resurvey thereon and compounding for the vacancy, within twelve months as prescribed by Law, the relator Samuel Goaman on the ninth day of march seventeen hundred and ninety five, obtained a proclamation warrant for the same land, and accordingly on the first day of June seventeen hundred and ninety five, executed the said warrant by returning a certificate of resurvey thereon to the Land office, called Columbia and containing the quantity of two thousand four hundred and twenty acres of land
