of illustration marked No. 1. if so by what authority did you make it out within with or without order from the chancellor. — 1st A: the truth is certified on the platt; — 2d question, did you make out this explanation No. 2 from letter B to AB. being an explanation of the above plot of illustration, 2. d I have every reason to believe I did; — 3d question, is this certificate signed with your name a true copy from the originals being No. 3. — 3rd A. to the best of my knowledge they are: — 4th question, in your deposition taken for Wm. Jarrett you say that numbers of reputable people told you, that Henry Dixons evidence was not to be depended upon or some thing like this will you please to name who those reputable people are; — 4th A. Squire Noth. Smith was one and told it before the commissioners and Squire William Smith was another and others which I do not at present recollect, and John Doreen told me this morning that he heard Thomas Fitzgarel tell Henry Dixon he could prove him perjured by 12 men, — 5th question did you hear those men say so before you was sworn in this cause; — 5th A. I heard Squire Wm. Smith and Jno. Mgough say so several years ago, — 6th question, when did you survey that tract of land called contestable manor under Capt. Calder what year was it in and what month: — 6th A. I began the survey called Contestable manor for the defendant as an assistant to Capt. James Calder Jany 22nd 1789 and was the 23d of Jany. feby. 5th & 6th before I finished it. — 7th Question did you survey the Hills of Poverty first or the contestable manor first and will you relate which was the first done by you. —
7th A. I do not know what is meant by first done in the question, but I surveyed contestable manor and Jesse Jarrett at that time informed me that his purchase was on the Hills of Poverty but he did not purchase it all; — 8th question did you or did you not in may 97 run the Hills of Poverty and did you actually run all the lines contained in the survey called the Hills of Poverty at that time; — 8th A. I did not run the given line of Hills of Poverty at that time, — 9th question, did you also actually run all the lines of the tract of land called Contestable manor at the same time as mentioned above in the other question. —
9th A. I actually run all the lines of Hills of Poverty from which with other surveyings reconnected the certificate of Contestable manor on which grant has issued which took some considerable time and whether all the surveying was done in may 1797 or not I am not certain, — 10th question, did you or did you not when you run out the Hills of Poverty for Jarrett when you run round near the Pennsylvania line, did you not take up the chain & go to a stake in a marsh beyond the teat meeting house begun to run again without running the 7th line of said survey that time you run it may 1797. — 10th A: I dont recollect. —
