Dickson asked Frederick Heefner when they should settle about the Land, that he should have something that he smiled and said he could not alway be put off: said Heefner replied, he should not be uneasy for as soon as the business was settled with Shehawn, they the said George Dickson and Frederick Heefner would settle the business on peaceable Terms

To the Twelfth thirteenth and fourteenth Interrogatories answers, that he has nothing further to answer than already stated in his answer to the eleventh Interrogatory.

To the fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth Interrogatories answers, that he has no knowledge relating thereto.

George Murdock Esquire of Frederick Town aged fifty six years being produced, Sworn and examined on behalf of the Complainants.

To the first Interrogatory answers, he has known the Complainant from the year Seventeen hundred and fifty nine or Seventeen hundred and Sixty, and the Defendants from their youth to the present day

To the second Interrogatory answers, he has known James Dickson from May seventeen hundred and fifty nine, till his death, that he died in Fredericktown, how long since this Deponent does not recollect.

To the third Interrogatory, answers, that James Dickson died a married Man and without issue by his Wife.

To the fourth Interrogatory answers, that George Dickson was generally reputed to be the brother and so acknowledged by the said James Dickson.

To the fifth Interrogatory answers, that the said James Dickson was very much involved in Debt and generally supposed to be insolvent, but in the opinion of the Deponent he would not have been Insolvent if the necessary steps had been taken to settle his affairs to advantage.

To the Sixth Interrogatory this Deponent answers, that he has no knowledge relating thereto.

To the seventh, eighth, ninth and Tenth Interrogatory answers he is well acquainted with the hand writing of Stephen West and Christopher Edelin, that the names Christopher Edelin and Stephen West subscribing Witness to the Exhibit No. 1. is the hand writing of the said Stephen West and Christopher Edelin, that the said Stephen West is dead and that the said Christopher Edelen has been dead about twelve years.

To the Eleventh Interrogatory answers, that the deponent attending as a Commissioner under a Commission from Frederick County Court on a tract of Land called Heefners Fancy on the nineteenth day of August Seventeen hundred and Eighty during and after executing the same; conversation took place between George Dickson and Frederick Heefner deceased; respecting the land on which the Commission was, And that the said Deponent was from what passed between the parties under the impression, that the said land was the joint property of the said George Dickson and Frederick Heefner that some time after executing the above Commission and a short time before the death of the said Frederick Heefner this Deponent then being a Justice of the peace, was called on by the Complainant to go to the House of the said Frederick Heefner to take the acknowledgement of a Deed that a blank Deed was produced by George Dickson for the land as this Deponent understood from George Dickson, to be conveyed by the Exhibit No. 1. but that this Deponent does not know from his own knowledge, the name or quantity of Land described in the deed or that the Deed was read by said Heefner; That the said Heefner was extremely low, so much so, that he could not walk, but of perfect mind and memory, that he this deponent is of opinion, that the parties understood each other and meant the land to be conveyed as described by Exhibit No. 1. that they parted without executing the Deed, the said Heefner alledging that he