the Judgment aforesaid until the second Tuesday of May then next; and to him it was granted the same day was given to the said Thomas Turner also.

And at this day, to wit, the third Monday in June being the sixteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six, until which day the proceedings aforesaid which had remained without day by the operation & effect of an Act of the General Assembly of this State passed at a Session of Assembly begun and held at the City of Annapolis on Monday the fourth of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, entitled, "An Act to confirm an Act, entitled, An Act to provide for the trial of facts in the several Counties of this State and to alter change and abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of Government as relate to the General Court and Court of Appeals" having been in virtue of an Act passed at the same Session of Assembly entitled "An Act to provide for the organization and regulation of the Court of Common Law, in this State and for the administration of Justice therein" revived and continued until the next Court of Appeals to be holden for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis, come into the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore here, as well the said William Holland by John Johnson his attorney, as the said Thomas Turner by Alexander C. Magruder his Attorney, and the said William Holland by his Attorney aforesaid, saith that in the Record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the Record aforesaid it appears that the Judgment aforesaid in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said Thomas Turner against the said William Holland whereby the Law of the land that Judgment ought to have been given for the said William Holland against the said Thomas

Thomas Turner, therefore in that there is manifest error and he prays that the Judgment aforesaid for that error and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid may be reversed, annulled and held entirely as no and that he the said William Holland may be restored to all which he has lost by occasion of the said Judgment and that the said Thomas Turner may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth. And the said Thomas Turner by his Attorney aforesaid saith there is no error in the Record of proceedings aforesaid or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid and prays that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the Record of proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid by the said William Holland above for errors assigned, and that the said Judgment may be in all things affirmed & so forth.

But because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the third Monday in December next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not advised and so forth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said third Monday in December being the fifteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six, come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid; and the said William Holland by his said Attorney relinquishing his verification aforesaid above by him pretended, says that there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid or in giving the Judgment aforesaid.

Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the judgment aforesaid given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified. And it is further considered by the Court here, that the said Thomas Turner have execution against the said William Holland as well for his Debt, Damages, Costs and charges aforesaid so as aforesaid adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also the quantity of one thousand and ninety four pounds of Tobacco, adjudged unto
