William Holland (Seal)

District of Columbia, Washington County the 13.th Nov.r 1802, appeared before me the Subscriber a Justice of the peace for the District and County aforesaid Benjamin Stoddert and made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God that the within Bond of of William Holland is justly due to him and was given for value received, and that no part of the principal or Interest has been paid. Sworn before

Thos. Corcoran

I hereby Assign to Thomas Turner his heirs and assigns the within Bond for value received. Witness my hand and seal this 13.th day of November 1802.

Which being read and heard the said William says that he the said Thomas as Assignee of Benjamin Stoddert his action thereof against him to have or maintain ought not, because he says, that he the said William paid to the said Benjamin Stoddert before the Assignment thereof upon the twenty eighth day of September in the year Eighteen hundred and two in the said condition above specified the said sum of fifty two pounds twelve shillings and Eight pence current Money together with the Interest thereon, which the said William ought to have paid to the said Benjamin according to the form and effect of the condition aforesaid, to wit, at the County aforesaid and this he is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment if the said Thomas ought to have or maintain his said action thereupon against him and so forth.

Nevertheless the said William Holland by his said Attorney relinquishing the averment aforesaid above by him pretended saith that he cannot deny the action of the said Thomas Turner so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the said Thomas Turner the said sum of one hundred and five pounds twelve shillings and eight pence current Money in manner and form as the said Thomas Turner against him hath declared. Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Thomas Turner recover against the said William Holland a well the sum of one hundred and five pounds twelve shillings and eight pence Current Money his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed, as also the sum of four hundred and ninety one pounds of Tobacco and one shilling and ten pence half penny current Money
