and forty five pounds twelve shillings current money of Maryland to be paid to the said Brice Thomas Beale Worthington his certain attorney Executors Administrators or assigns to the payment well and truly to be made and done I do bind myself my heirs Executors and administrators firmly by these presents sealed with my seal and dated this sixth day of February seventeen hundred and ninety one.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Bicknell his certain attorney his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns the just and full sum of one hundred and seventy one pounds six shillings current money of Maryland with legal interest for the same at or upon the day of next ensuing the date hereof of that then this obligation to be void, else to be - - - -

Signed sealed and delivered in presence of Richard Hale, Andrew Anderson } Thomas Bicknell (SS)

Indorsement

Received satisfaction by assignment on Robert John Smiths Bond to the amount of five pounds three shillings and three pence current money in part of the Interest due on the within bond this 17th July 1795.

Brice Thomas B Worthington

True Copy
John Grimm Clk.

Worthington Exors. a Bicknell, Robertson and others - - - } Agreed by consent that the answer of Robinson sworn to in the state where he resides shall be received without issuing a Commission to take the same — suggest the death of Riggs —

Rd. Ridgely
T. B. Worthington

Worthingtons Exors. a Bicknell & others } Chancery Agreed by consent that Robert Denny the auditor of the Court of Chancery state three accounts in this case, the one stating the value of the continental money (on the day of mortgage) in specie with Interest to 15th October 1802 making the whole principal on that day and carrying on Interest from that day until payments made according to the practice of this Court and principles of Equity, the 2nd statement on the principle of the act of 1780 to make the loss fall equally on Creditor and debtor if it can be applied to the case; the third statement to be made from the Indorsement on the back of the mortgage. We moving to submitt to the Chancellor which statement is proper to be enforced.

Richard Ridgely for Compt.
P. B. Key for Defendant.
24 November 1798.

Worthingtons Exors. a Bicknell and others } In Chancery December Term 1797

The Deposition of Andrew Anderson aged forty six years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that this deponent bought of Ninian Riggs a parcel of Land containing one hundred and eight acres situate in the fork of Patuxent: that the said parcel of land had been previously mortgaged by Richard Robinson to Brice T B Worthington deceased: that this Deponent gave his Bond to Brice T. B. Worthington and took up Riggs Bond That the principle & Interest due on Riggs Bond, for which this deponent give his Bond in lieu thereof amounted to the sum of one hundred and sixty eight pounds current money or thereabout. This deponent further saith that when he gave he gave his Bond to Brice T B. Worthington, he told this deponent that when he paid off his Bond he would give up the mortgage which he had taken from Robinson that the bond given by this Deponent as Mr. Worthington informed him included the money which was due on the mortgage. That Thomas Fowler and Ninian Riggs were present at the time — and further this deponent sayeth that he took up his Bond on Thomas Bicknell passing his to the said Worthington for the supposed mortgage claim &

Sworn to this 20th day of December 1797.

Brice T. Worthington