in that it was manifestly erred; and they prayed that the Decree aforesaid for that and other errors in the Record of proceedings aforesaid being, might be revoked annulled and held for naught, and that they the said Appellants to all which the by occasion of the decree aforesaid had lost might be restored &c.

And the said Appellees by their attornies aforesaid said that neither in the record of proceedings aforesaid nor in rendering the Decree aforesaid it was in any wise erred and therefore prayed that the said Decree might in all things be affirmed &c.

And thereupon the said parties by their attornies aforesaid prayed that the said court of Appeals would proceed as well to the examination of the Record of proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid above for errors assigned; But because the said court of Appeals were not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises day therefore was given to the parties aforesaid before the said court of Appeals until the second Monday of November then next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises because the said Court then there were not advised &c.

At which said second Tuesday of June being the eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, come again into the said court of Appeals the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid. Whereupon for that the said court of Appeals were not then advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid day therefore was further given to the said parties to hear thereof their Judgment until the second monday of November next, for that the said court then and there were not &c.

At which said second Monday of November being the eleventh day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five come again into the said County of Appeals the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid. Whereupon for that the said court of Appeals were not then advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid, day therefore was further given to the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their attornies aforesaid to hear thereof their Judgment until the second Tuesday of June then next for that the said court then there were not &c.

And at this day, to wit, the third Monday in June being the sixteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six until which day the proceedings aforesaid, which had remained without day by the operation and effect of an act of the General Assembly of this State at a Session of Assembly began and held at the City of Annapolis on Monday the fourth of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five entitled "An Act to confirm an Act, entitled, "An Act to provide for the trial of facts in the several Counties of this state, and to alter change and abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of Government as relate to the General Court and Court of Appeals" having been in virtue of an act passed at the same Session of Assembly entitled "An Act to provide for the organization and regulation of the courts of common Law in this state and for the administration of Justice therein" revived and continued until the next court of Appeals to be holden for for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis comes into the court of Appeals here as well the said Appellants by Richard Ridgely their Attorney as the said Appellee by Philip Barton Key, Arthur Shaaff and John Johnson their attornies; Whereupon for that the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid, day therefore is further given to the said parties to hear thereof their Judgment until the third Monday in December next, for that the Court here are not &c.

And now at this day, to wit, the said third Monday in December being the fifteenth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid. Whereupon as well the Record and whole proceedings of the Court of Chancery and the Decree thereupon given, as the causes and matters aforesaid by the said Appellants above for errors assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here diligently examined into and fully
